OUTDOOR MASS DATE CHANGE

Sunday 11:30AM Mass will be under the tent through September 10.

In the event of rain or extreme heat,
Mass will be held inside the Church.

REMEMBER, the pavement is uneven. If you have mobility issues, stand at your seat and we will bring Communion to you. Better safe than sorry!

Dear All, Christ's peace!

I hope you are letting August be August – as much as possible We are determined to let August be August around here. Still, we need to get a few items on the September calendar..

Women's Bible Study – Walking with Purpose – Believe it or not, this fall marks the start of the ninth year of our women's bible study ministry. This year's study delves into John's Gospel. The groups will meet on Monday nights and Tuesday mornings, starting September 25. Check out the information in the Gathering Space after Labor Day.

Men's Bible Study – This year, the men's bible study will also be on Monday nights. We will meet on Zoom and will focus on the second half of Matthew's Gospel. We will also take up one current event each month and consider it in terms of Matthew's Gospel. NEW GUYS ARE ENCOURAGED TO JOIN. We hope to start on Monday, October 9.

Youth Ministry – Calling all high school students to the new year of fun, prayer, and amazing community, starting September 17 – mostly on Sunday nights for the regular gatherings, and all sorts of other times for the other stuff. The 2023/24 high school youth ministry calendar is posted. <https://simillstone.com/youth-ministry>

Young Mom's Group – M.O.M.S. Squad – Given last year's great blessings, the young moms from last year are eager to reconvene, again on Wednesday mornings, starting in October. You can learn more about joining this awesome group, after Masses on the weekend of September 9 and September 16, or feel free to email Liz Loughlin, eloughlin@sjmillstone.com.

Young Families – The new calendar of events is in the works, and we'll be kicking it off with the parish picnic. Please join us on Sunday, September 10 for an afternoon filled with fun, family time, and fellowship! The main attractions will include a bouncy house, the Big Kahuna, a photo booth, bubbles, and plenty of food. Expect to hear from Liz Loughlin soon with the dates for kids-only events and kid-friendly events. Liz will also be seeking your input about some very fun ideas for the new year.

Finally, thanks to all who prayed for a peaceful death for my sister, Lucy Hilton Minder. She died peacefully on Monday. Her husband, her three children, and many of her 10 grandchildren were able to be with her near the end. There will be a memorial service in the fall in Maine. Say another prayer, that Lucy will now "rest in peace and rise to glory."

With all best blessings for you and your loved ones in the Holy Days of August!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Registration

Many thanks to all the families who registered for fall CCD classes. We have heard from 90 per cent of you, and that really helps us plan the best year ever! For those who haven't been able to register yet, but are interested in classes this year, it isn't too late! Our online registration is closed, but please contact Linda Mackiw at lmackiw@sjmillstone.com or Kelly Craigle at kcraigle@sjmillstone.com to see which classes still have spots available. We will be sending out class assignments and the CCD-year calendar this week. Classes begin on Catechetical Sunday, September 17. We look forward to seeing everyone!

Sunday Morning Second Graders

The request for Sunday morning classes for second graders has been impressive. To accommodate that surge, we are going to have two Sunday morning sections rather than one. If you have a second grader for whom Sunday morning is the preferred time, please register ASAP. Thanks!

The Alternate Route

Even "the best laid plans" . . . get messed up. We understand that life sometimes gets in the way of keeping your children on track with their religious education and Christian formation. The pandemic did not help. Neither do family crises or relocations. To make allowance for these situations, we have a class to help children catch up with their grade. It is called "The Alternative Route," and we are happy to make it available to folks who genuinely need it. If your child needs to get caught up, especially in preparation for First Communion or Confirmation, email Kelly Craigle at kcraigle@sjmillstone.com.

Special Needs

Does your child do better in a smaller, more individualized learning environment? Remember we have a Sunday morning class for students with special learning needs. Parents attend the classes with their children and help enrich the learning. Questions? Email Linda Mackiw at lmackiw@stjosephsparish.com.

CALLING ALL T-SHIRTS

Does your wardrobe contain a few too many colorful T-shirts? Whose doesn't? This is your chance to repurpose them for God's glory. Gather up your stain-free, recently laundered, big T-shirts (Adult sizes L or XL – or M if it runs big) and bring them to church. Why? Because the folks in the Cramer Hill section of Camden will use them for grocery bags when they obtain food from the "Sisters of St. Joseph Neighborhood Center" SJNC). How? Our parish's recently formed Sewing Brigade will convert many of the T-shirts into shopping bags. People at the SSJNC will convert the rest. So, launder your shirts and bring them to church. The collection begins this weekend and runs through the weekend of the parish picnic, September 10. The bins will be in the Memorial Hallway. Questions? Email Victor at vfung@sjmillstone.com.

That all may be one

The spirit of division is about being right. The spirit of unity is about embracing Christ. In which direction are we heading? Ecumenism seems an almost quaint idea in the 21st-century church. Other issues seem to have become more critical for many than getting Christians on the same page. Yet a divided church is a scandal to a world that questions our sincerity if we can't even agree on Jesus. Dialogue with others without the need to criticize beliefs or change minds. Create opportunities to pray, study, work, and mission together with local Christians. They will know we are Christians by our love.

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 56:1, 6-7; Romans 11:13-15, 29-32; Matthew 15:21-28 (118). "For my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples."

Look beyond the wardrobe

The saying "Clothes make the man" was certainly not true for Pope Pius X. He was born poor, teased at school for his tattered clothes, and sometimes carried his shoes to make them last longer. When he became pope in 1903, remaining as humble as his origins, he said the only thing that had changed about him was the color of his cassock from black to white—a fact he sometimes forgot since he had to be reminded not to wipe his pen on his clothes anymore. Let Pius X remind you to stay true to your authentic self by keeping your life simple.

MEMORIAL OF PIUS X, POPE

TODAY'S READINGS: Judges 2:11-19; Matthew 19:16-22 (419). "If you wish to be perfect, go, sell what you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven."

Eight days a week

The Queenship of Mary doubles as a liturgical bookend, concluding eight full days since celebrating her Assumption. In liturgical language, these eight days form an octave. Most simply, an octave extends the celebration of a church feast from a single day into eight. Historically, Christianity inherited the practice from Judaism, which, for instance, celebrates eight days of Hanukkah and circumcision eight days after a boy's birth—the latter being why many baptismal fonts are octagonal. If a week is seven days, then the eighth day begins a new week—the eighth day signaling the start of something new or renewal, just as Baptism makes a person new or "born again." Honor Mary anew by praying the Salve Regina today.

MEMORIAL OF THE QUEENSHIP OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

TODAY'S READINGS: Judges 6:11-24a; Matthew 19:23-30 (420). "For men this is impossible, but for God all things are possible."

Wednesday, Aug 23, 2023

Go deep

Today is the feast of Rose of Lima, patron of Latin America. You can visit her tomb in the historic center of Lima, Peru, a place teeming with activity. Enter the Dominican monastery where she is buried and leave behind the noise and heat of the street. Descend a narrow passage; bow your head to clear the low ceiling. You'll emerge into a cool, hushed room with her tomb at the far end. It is a holy place—a place you'd never know if you didn't go deep. How do you get to the deep sacred space within your daily life?

MEMORIAL OF ROSE OF LIMA, TERTIARY

TODAY'S READINGS: Judges 9:6-15; Matthew 20:1-16 (421). "Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last."

Pure faith

Tradition has it that Bartholomew was tortured to death for the faith. Scholars believe that he is mentioned in scripture by both his name and by the name Nathaniel. Nathaniel was famously complimented by Jesus for being a true Israelite, with no duplicity. Purity of heart, in fact, is how most holy disciples attain holiness. Through profound connection to God, they avoid guile, duplicity, and other sins that are so easy to fall into when God slides into the background. Saint Bartholomew, help us maintain a clean heart.

FEAST OF BARTHOLOMEW, APOSTLE

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 21:9b-14; John 1:45-51 (629). "Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him and said of him, 'Here is a true child of Israel. There is no duplicity in him.'"

Women will not remain silent!

Do you know all 333 women of the Bible? There are at least that many, writes Catholic commentator Alice Camille, and each is worth getting to know. Visible presence of women in leadership roles has long suffered from hierarchical structures rooted in patriarchal values. The establishment of the biblical canon reflects this as well with women's voices and stories rarely included except in support roles. Stories such as that of Ruth and Naomi that survived the canonical cutting-room floor are a beacon of light and remind us that despite overwhelming suppression of women's voices, they could not be silenced. How are you called to give voice or to amplify suppressed voices today?

TODAY'S READINGS: Ruth 1:1, 3-6, 14b-16, 22; Matthew 22:34-40 (423). "Ruth said, 'Do not ask me to abandon or forsake you!'"

Saturday, Aug 26, 2023

A ruling from the bench

Jesus speaks of the scribes and Pharisees sitting on the "chair of Moses." Archeologists have uncovered stone chairs in prominent places in ancient synagogues where such leaders presumably sat as they pronounced on all things related to Jewish Law and Tradition. When it came to fulfilling the spirit of the Law rather than just the letter, Jesus called out the hypocrisy of those who did not practice what they preach. In any field—politics, business, religion—leaders need to be judged not by the eloquence of their words but by the integrity of their actions. That goes for all of us, wherever we take our seat!

TODAY'S READINGS: Ruth 2:1-3, 8-11; 4:13-17; Matthew 23:1-12 (424). "The scribes and the Pharisees have taken their seat on the chair of Moses.... but do not follow their example. For they preach but they do not practice."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
