READINGS FOR NEXT WEEKEND

Acts of the Apostles 9:26-31
1 John 3:18-24
John 15:1-8

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Today is observed as Good Shepherd Sunday by Catholics and several other Christian denominations. Each year on this Sunday, the Gospel is taken from chapter 10 of John, where Jesus speaks of himself as the "good shepherd". In the Bible, shepherds are used to represent the leaders of God's people. Like shepherds who look after their sheep and defend them, Jesus is the Good Shepherd, watching over us and protecting us.

Today is also observed as World Day of Prayer for Vocations because the Good Shepherd is the model for true leadership in the Church. We pray today for all leaders in the Church, and especially pray that young people will have the courage and grace to follow God's call to the ordained or religious life.

"This Week"

Are you receiving "This Week," the e-letter that Father Hank sends out every Friday? It is the best way to stay current on timely parish news, especially when it comes to late-breaking announcements or big news for the upcoming weekend. Simply sign up on our parish webpage and it will appear in your email each Friday. Go to www.sjmillstone.com to sign up.

This Week in Prayer, Service & Community

Dear All, Christ's Peace!

Outdoor Mass – Today, Sunday, April 21, we begin 11:30 Mass in the pavilion.

Part of the Mass – From now until early June, at the 4:45, 9:30, and 11:30 Masses, the homily will connect the readings to a particular part of the Mass. The goal is to make ourselves more available to the grace of relational prayer – i.e., to let ourselves be nudged by God beyond reflexive/automatic replies into reflective and relational prayer. Every part of every Mass presents a unique invitation to enter into truly relational prayer. Last week we considered the Penitential Rite and what we can mean when we pray “Lord have mercy; Christ have mercy; Lord have mercy.” It is about mercy as reprieve (cancellation of punishment due) and relief (rescue from tough settings). To move further toward relational prayer we want to (i) monotonize during that prayer (ii) be mindful of Jesus being mindful of us, with or without imaginative prayer and (iii) customize it with our own particular needs for reprieve and relief. How's that going for you?

Parish Capital Improvement Projects –

With thanks to our Buildings and Grounds Committee, our Finance Council, our Parish Council and, most of all, to you, I want to update you on our three big projects.

The Pavilion – It is now all finished and ready to use. We have had a few details left on the punch list (e.g., this week, paint the outlets and the conduits) but they are finished. We have used it several times, but its official launch is Sunday, April 21, with the 11:30 Mass. The Youth Group will set up the chairs. The bishop will dedicate it this summer. All in, the project cost $750 less than you contributed.

Worship Space HVAC – This is our least beautiful and most expensive project. We have $600,000 earmarked for the project and hope it costs less than that. The plans have all been approved and the initial permits granted. The demolition began last week. We hope to have it finished by late May. We will replace the north end equipment and then the south end.

Worship Space and Gathering Space Repairs and Paint – The hardest parts of the repairs are now complete. You can see the new expansion joints (little channels that run up or across the walls) and the repairs of the old sheetrock (nails and screws in dozens of places). Next comes the spackle. We submitted the painting proposal to the diocese this week and should get approval next week. Color choices are almost there. We will start the actual painting AFTER the HVAC is installed and AFTER the new sound panels arrive. The area will look a bit “under construction” until then.

With extra blessings for the remaining days of your Easter season.

Week #13 BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL STAY WITH US, LORD:

Renew our Hearts and Send Us on Mission

Thank you to all who have given so generously to the 2024 Bishop's Annual Appeal. If you have not made a pledge, there is still time to participate. Mail your gift to: Diocese of Metuchen Bishop's Annual Appeal, PO Box 4000, Metuchen, NJ 08840-4000 or give online at <https://diometuchen.org/BAA>.

AVERAGE WEEKLY COLLECTION FOR FEBRUARY

February 2024*	$28,102
February 2023	$24,201
February 2022	$23,583
February 2021	$21,975

Goal for Feb. 2024	$22,200
% of Goal	126%

*The February report indicates that, in recent years, the weekly average for February has moved in the $22k-$24k zone, but this year it was $28k. The spike to $28k occurred because two generous families gave their entire annual gifts in lump sums in February. If we take them out, we average $22k. The good news is we are currently exactly on target.

Knights Korner

The Knights Need Your Help!

The Millstone Valley Knights of Columbus is celebrating 30 years as a KofC Council this year. Since being formed as a Council, many of the original members are still active and attend meetings and volunteer to support events. This is wonderful, and it says a lot about these Knights and our Council.

But, to sustain us for the next 30 years, we need more men to answer the call to serve. Being part of the Knights is one of the easiest ways to give back to the community and to respond to that desire to volunteer. The level of commitment is not defined by the Council. We ask that you give what you can, when you can.

21 April 2024

WORD OF THE WEEK

Evangelist vi-'van-jə-list

One who announces Good News, particularly the message of the gospel. Often refers exclusively to the four gospel writers Mark, Matthew, Luke, and John. The New Testament also uses this term in reference to Philip, the deacon, and Timothy, a worker with Paul.

Pronunciation: <https://tinyurl.com/Take5-Evangelist>

CONTEXT

Evangelizers take on the “smell of the sheep” and the sheep are willing to hear their voice.

—Pope Francis, Evangelii Gaudium

We are all evangelists, but we almost always evangelize about the wrong things.

—Matthew Kelly

Saint Juan Diego, the peasant to whom Our Lady of Guadalupe appeared, is essentially the evangelizer of an entire hemisphere. —USCCB.org

WHY IT MATTERS

All Christians are summoned to the role of evangelists, a term first used in reference to the gospel writers in the third century. As followers of Jesus, our common vocation is to bring Good News to the poor, sick, lonely, imprisoned, and socially marginalized. The words of the four primary evangelists—Mark, Matthew, Luke, and John—instruct us in the mission we're invited to share.

From Evangelii Nuntiandi (Evangelization in the Modern World): The world is calling for evangelizers to speak to it of a God whom the evangelists themselves should know and be familiar with [122].

RELATED WORDS

Mission | Vocation | Gospel | Proclamation

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What's an evangelist?

Evangelist translates from Greek as "messenger of good tidings." All baptized persons are called to be such messengers. Isaiah speaks of the "beautiful feet" of those who bring Good News. Ephesians describes apostles, prophets, and evangelists as central players in the church. Biblically, evangelist is not an exclusive term.

By the third century, the formal list of evangelists is reduced to the four gospel writers, Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. They concretized the Good News the church would proclaim going forward.

By the fourth century, the symbology of the four evangelists became standardized as man, lion, ox, and eagle. Facing the four directions, these extraordinary creatures are four and yet unified in movement. They also burn like hot coals. Matthew, whose gospel emphasizes Jesus' humanity, is represented by the man. Mark highlights Jesus' divinity and kingship, so is identified as the lion. Luke holds up the sacrificial role of Jesus and so becomes the ox. John is the eagle as his gospel soars with a transcendent perspective on Jesus as the Christ.

—Alice Camille, from Questions Catholics Ask <http://tinyurl.com/QCA-Evangelist>

REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

FEAST OF MARK, EVANGELIST (APRIL 25)

I've got Good News

Mark was an evangelist, one who brings Good News. He was also one of the four evangelists who are credited with writing the gospels. Mark's gospel is the shortest, but it packs a punch with its message of the suffering servant Jesus who endured defeat and death so that we all might be saved.

READINGS: 1 Peter 5:5b-14; Mark 16:15-20 (555 <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/042524.cfm>). "Go into the whole world and proclaim the Gospel to every creature."

FAITH IN ACTION

Mark's mission of sharing the Good News of our salvation didn't stop with him. It extends to all who hear and believe the gospel. Bring the Good News to someone around you today.
