READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

Zechariah 9:9-10
Romans 8:9, 11-13 Matthew 11:25-30

Dear All. Christ's Peace!

Big summer blessings for all as we say "Goodbye" to the school year and "Hello" to summer. Count on a prayer for your adventures, your idle spells, and your summer experience of prayer, service, and community. And remember to mark your calendar for Thursday, July 27 for Parish Summer Palooza. Please email me with ideas of the best games for people of your age.

Restorations of Pre-Pandemic Mass Customs –

The Return of the Blood of Christ – It is a consolation to see so many receiving the Blood of Christ and it is perfectly understandable that many remain a little cautious. Thanks for your flexibility as we continue to tweak the system.

The Return of the Offertory Processions – Starting September 16, we will ask people to sign up to bring the offertory gifts at the 8:00 and 9:30 Masses. (We already have a procession at the 4:45, and the 11:30 will change significantly this fall.) Stay tuned for details.

The Return of the Altar Servers – We hope to reinstate the altar servers in early October. And we anticipate a shortage! Many of our pre-pandemic altar servers have aged out and the pandemic was not a time to recruit new ones. If you have children in grades 4-12 who might be game, please email Suzanne at skral@sjmillstone.com. Please put "Server" in the subject line.

The Non-Return of Collections – All indicators are that the post-Mass collection system is working well. There are no plans to reinstate the pre-pandemic way of basket-passing.

Will Your Ministry Need Donations of Money or Physical Items? – Victor is already making great strides toward organizing our collections of money and physical items (clothes, books, tools, etc.) Starting in September we will have year-long schedules for monetary donations to the Poor Box and donations of physical items to the collection bins. The planning helps assure that every worthy cause gets support and that you can set giving priorities. If your ministry will need donations of money or physical items, email Victor at vfung@sjmillstone.com. We will continue to collect food every week and we will always respond to disasters.

Sacrament of the Sick – Come September, we will offer 12 scheduled anointings per year. For now, keep letting me know when you are approaching surgery or treatment, or have recently received a significant diagnosis. Remember – it is NOT the sacrament of the dying. It is the Sacrament of the Sick.

With sincere blessings for your experience of summer,

Father Hank

SUMMER SERVICE TRIPS

Tis the season. We are blessed to have many parishioners, of all ages, making time to help people who need it. Adults in Dunlow, West Virginia – Big blessings and happy restoration for the adult parishioners who returned from their week in Wayne County where they helped build one house from the ground up and did significant repairs on several others.

Young Adults in McAllen, Texas – More blessings for the 20 young adults and facilitators who have left for a week of service at the Charities Humanitarian Respite Center in McAllen. They will also help at centers for low-income residents and at “Jesuits at the Border.” (Love that last one.)

High School Students in Newark and Paterson, New Jersey – On July 16, 40 young parishioners will head to Newark and Paterson to do repairs and maintenance work for charitable organizations and for individuals. They will work in the big cities and stay in Haledon. God bless them all.

Thank You!

MAY BABY CRIB COLLECTION

The Respect Life and Pregnancy Aid Center Ministries extend a great big thank you to all parishioners for your generous contributions to the May Baby Crib Collection. The response was overwhelming!

Pregnancy Aid and Information Center was amply stocked with diapers, layettes, baby and children’s clothing, grooming items and supplies. YOU have helped to benefit, provide support and improve the lives of needy mothers and their children.

Fran Johnson, Director of Pregnancy Aid and Information Center recently stated that “Our center is such a beacon of light for our mothers, who need assistance in raising their babies and youngsters. It also is an inspiration for all of us who volunteer there, as well as those who donate so generously. We are a small microcosm of the beauty of working together and helping those who need a helping hand.”

HILLSBOROUGH FOOD BANK

Hunger doesn’t take a vacation. Summer is the season when parishioners travel and donations to the food bank typically dwindle a little. But the folks who need the food do not travel and still need the food. Please be as generous as you are able.

Say what you see

Upon winning the Nobel Peace Prize in 1986, Elie Wiesel was named a "messenger to mankind." The Los Angeles Times called him the "most important Jew in America." A Holocaust survivor, Wiesel didn't speak of his experiences for 10 years after his liberation from the camps. Eventually he understood the world needed his witness: "We must take sides. Neutrality helps the oppressor, never the victim. Silence encourages the tormentor, never the tormented.... Wherever men and women are persecuted because of their race, religion, or political views, that place must—at that moment—become the center of the universe." Tell the truth from where you stand.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 4:8-11, 14-16a; Romans 6:3-4, 8-11; Matthew 10:37-42 (97). "Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it."

A twin to us all

Three times in the Gospel of John, the apostle Thomas is also called Didymus. Both names mean "twin"—in Aramaic and Greek respectively. He is referred to in some non-biblical historical texts as "Judas Thomas"—a.k.a. "Judas the Twin." It's likely "the twin" was his nickname and he was known by it among Jews and Greeks. But there's no explanation of whose twin he was. Today, Christians mostly know him as "Doubting Thomas" because he didn't believe Jesus had risen until he saw for himself. While we don't know the identity of Thomas' biological twin, do we resemble him in our disbelief from time to time? Ask Jesus for the grace of faith and the same graciousness he showed to Thomas.

FEAST OF THOMAS, APOSTLE

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 2:19-22; John 20:24-29 (593). "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

Tuesday, Jul 04, 2023

Born on the Fourth of July

Born on the Fourth of July is the best-selling memoir of Ron Kovic, Catholic Vietnam vet turned peace activist. On the fourth of July, in 1936, Saint Elizabeth of Portugal was born into eternal life. Like Kovic, Elizabeth threw herself into peacemaking—twice intervening to avert war. Like Kovic, the queen bucked authority: When her husband forbade her from giving royal wealth away to the poor, Elizabeth smuggled contributions out of the castle in her robes. As Americans celebrate our good fortune this day, may the rights enshrined in the Declaration of Independence—"life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness"—be tempered by Elizabeth's example: "God made me queen so that I may serve others."

OPTIONAL MASS FOR INDEPENDENCE DAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 19:15-29; Matthew 8:23-27 (378). "He said to them, 'Why are you terrified, O you of little faith?'"

Wednesday, Jul 05, 2023

Be an island of justice

On this day in 1868, Rafael Cordero was born in San Juan, Puerto Rico, one of three children in a free black family. Throughout his life he was a passionate advocate for equitable education on the island, opening a free school for children in his home—the pupils of which would later include some of the most influential figures in Puerto Rican history. A devout Catholic, Cordero was also known for his charity to the poor. He also fought for the abolition of slavery in Puerto Rico, which was achieved in 1873. Following his death, his schoolhouse became a historic site, and the archbishop of San Juan opened his cause for canonization. He was declared venerable by Pope Francis in 2013. May his legacy of justice live on in our own works of mercy.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 21:5, 8-20a; Matthew 8:28-34 (379). "God was with the boy as he grew up."

Thursday, Jul 06, 2023

Girl power

Today's saint, Maria Goretti, died a difficult death at age 12 after being stabbed for resisting a rape. She is one of several patron saints of rape survivors. Traditional hagiography about Goretti focuses on her concern for chastity during her resistance, but women who have survived similar ordeals might see saintliness in Goretti's resistance itself. They might reclaim Goretti's story as one of female empowerment, a refusal to be degraded, and a rising above violence when Goretti—on her deathbed—forgave her tormentor. Her act of mercy lives on as a triumph over evil. Saint Maria Goretti, pray for all who have been hurt by sexual violence.

MEMORIAL OF MARIA GORETTI, YOUTH MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 22:1b-19; Matthew 9:1-8 (380). "He then said to the paralytic, 'Rise, pick up your stretcher, and go home.'"

Friday, Jul 07, 2023

Make a wish come true

When asked what he wished for his birthday on July 7, 2008, the Beatle's drummer Ringo Starr replied, "Peace and love." That simple wish grew into International Peace and Love Day celebrated around the world and even in outer space when a message of peace and love was sent from the International Space Station in 2020. Of course, wishing doesn't make it so. Start small. A little show of mercy and forgiveness will go a long way toward creating a world of peace and love.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 23:1-4, 19; 24:1-8, 62-67; Matthew 9:9-13 (381). "Go and learn the meaning of the words, I desire mercy, not sacrifice."

Saturday, Jul 08, 2023

New wine for modern minds

Do you know anybody who sews patches on an old coat or drinks wine out of a wineskin? And that's exactly the point of the Lord's teaching. It is the work of preachers, teachers, and translators to rearticulate the ancient truths of Christianity in terms that 21st-century learners can understand. Otherwise, much of the language and images of the ancient texts just keeps getting recycled. Pray for the preachers and teachers who have positively influenced you.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 27:1-5, 15-29; Matthew 9:14-17 (382). "People do not put new wine into old wineskins."
