IN PRAISE OF YOUR INSPIRED CONSISTENCY (As Priests, Prophets, and Queens/Kings)

Maybe every pastor feels the same way. Maybe not. But I know how I feel about your consistency. The awareness sometimes clobbers me and, when it does, I again feel like the luckiest duck in the lake.

Your inspired consistency was very apparent on recent Tuesdays when the Holy C.H.O.W! crew (backed up by an amazing kitchen crew) braved the truly rotten weather – a deep freeze one week, a torrential rain the next – so that our food-insecure neighbors would not have a hungry night.

It is apparent when I bump into the folks who gather and launder the altar linens and when I run into the folks who water the church plants. It is apparent at funerals when, regardless of convenience, members of our Lazarus Ministry ensure that funerals are prayerful and beautiful. It is apparent when I check in on our homebound and they praise their Eucharistic visitors who show up every week. It is apparent each Wednesday when volunteers provide the outdoor Communion service. It is apparent every time I stop into a CCD class led by very selfless and reliable teachers. It is apparent right now as I smell the results of the Knights' cooking.

And is it ever apparent when I stand in front of church before Masses and marvel at what it probably took to get some people there – group efforts to transport people with infirmities, big parental efforts to find the little kids' church shoes and patient parental efforts to wait for the big kids to stumble down to the car.

The list goes on and on and on and on. Chances are good that you are on it. You do it in prayer, in service, and in building up the community. What congregation is as good as you? If you find one, LMK.

Fr. Hank

“What was your confirmation name?”

Check out the saint posters at the Gathering Space bulletin boards. They are the saints that our confirmation students are choosing this year. Let the confirmation student know if that saint was also yours & please pray for them. Fill out a form to let students know you support them. Even if your saint is not listed, you can still participate...see the form for details. (N.B., Each poster has a number on it. Be sure to include the poster's number when you submit your form. Thanks!

Blessings for all you do to share your faith!

CONTRIBUTION STATEMENTS BY EMAIL

Monica is all geared up to send out your 2023 contribution statement. We have discovered in recent years that things go exceptionally well when Monica sends those statements via email. If you have already signed up for e-delivery, great. If you want to sign up now, email Monica at mmcdevitt@sjmillstone.com. She will need your name, address and envelope number. (If you cannot recall your envelope number, no sweat. Monica can find it.) You can also leave Monica a message at 908-864-0979. If you prefer, you may also receive your statement as a hard copy in the surface mail.

Words of Wisdom

The following is a translation of a sign posted in a church in France:

“When you enter this church, it may be possible that you hear ‘the call of God.’

However, it is unlikely He will call you on your mobile.

Thank you for turning off your phones.

If you want to talk to God, enter, choose a quiet place and talk to Him,

If you want to see Him, send him a text while driving.”

WORD OF THE WEEK

Evangelization \i-van-jə-lə-'zā-shən\

The act of preaching or proclaiming the gospel; how the Good News of Christ's coming is delivered to the ends of the earth.

Evangelizing begins with the witness of an authentic Christian life. This witness involves humility, detachment from wealth, faith, hope, and charity. In this way one becomes a credible proclaimer of the joy found in Jesus.

Pronunciation: <https://tinyurl.com/Take5-evangelization>

CONTEXT

An evangelizer must never look like someone who has just come back from a funeral!

—Pope Francis, Evangelii gaudium

The person who has been evangelized goes on to evangelize others. Here lies the test of truth, the touchstone of evangelization: it is unthinkable that a person should accept the Word and give himself to the kingdom without becoming a person who bears witness to it and proclaims it in his turn.

—Pope Paul VI, Evangelii nuntiandi

To teach in order to lead others to faith is the task of every preacher and of each believer.

—Saint Thomas Aquinas

WHY IT MATTERS

Jesus is the first evangelizer when he proclaims the coming of God's reign. Delivering the Good News of what God has done for us is, in fact, the entire mission of the church.

All people have a right to receive the gospel, and all Christians have a duty to proclaim it. This is not an obligation, says Pope Francis in Evangelii gaudium, but a joy as we "point to a horizon of beauty" for all.

RELATED WORDS

Gospel | Evangelii gaudium | Preaching

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What's the difference between catechesis and evangelization?

Catechesis is basically religious education. Rooted in the Greek word for "echo," its intent is to nurture the Christian life through imitation in word and deed. Evangelization also has Greek origins and means "proclaiming good news." That good news of God's reign is contained in the gospel. Just as catechesis doesn't mean memorizing rote facts about faith, evangelization isn't the same as shouting scripture verses to passersby. We can think of evangelization as creating the spark that ignites the fire, and catechesis as the work of tending the flame once it's established. . . . When the two work hand in hand, evangelization and catechesis can make us saints by bringing us to faith and then to holiness, inch by inch.

—Alice Camille, from Questions Catholics Ask <http://tinyurl.com/QCA-evangelization>

REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (FEBRUARY 4)

Our everything

The Second Vatican Council said the church is "missionary by its very nature"—in other words, mission, these days also called "evangelization," is more than just another thing the church does: It is part of everything the church does. What is mission? It's not only the sending of missionaries to foreign countries. Most simply, evangelization is bringing to others the Good News to which Jesus witnessed. It means seeing the face of Christ in everyone, especially the poor and outcast.

READINGS: Job 7:1-4; 6-7; 1 Corinthians 9:16-23; Mark 1:29-39 (74 <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/020424.cfm>). "Let us go to preach . . . For this purpose have I come."

FAITH IN ACTION

We can all be missionaries and evangelizers by showing compassion, spreading goodness, transforming, forgiving, loving, serving, preaching, teaching, and healing.
