Feast of St. Joseph

Patron Saint of Our Parish
Tuesday, March 19

When our new church was being designed and built twenty-six years ago, the Art & Furnishings Committee commissioned artist Alice Manzi of Porter's Corner, NY to sculpt the statue of St. Joseph for the church. At that time she also made a heart of clay which was placed inside the statue as a tribute to the parishioners who lovingly came together to build the church in 1998. Alice also fashioned the large, central crucifix behind the altar as well.

As we celebrate the feast of our patron saint, St. Joseph, we pray that we will always look to him as a model of the loving care and devotion we are called to share with our families, friends and all who look to us for support.

St. Joseph, pray for us.

This Week in Prayer, Service & Community

Dear All, Christ's Peace!

Prayer Partners' Revised Mission – The ministry formerly known as “Healing Prayer” took a beautiful next step last week and is now known as “Prayer Partners” and will enthusiastically welcome your desires to pray for any intention, not just healing. We recall Jesus saying, “Where two or more gather in my name” and so we reach out to others to pray with us. Praying for help with a big choice? College plans? Athletic hopes? A neighbor's needs? Financial difficulties? Pray with a prayer partner. .

Bereavement Group – A Bereavement Group is starting at the Metuchen Cathedral on April 10. It runs for 7 Wednesday evenings from 7:00 to 9:00 PM. Questions? Call Danielle at 732-763-0972.

The Sneaker/Walking Shoe Collection for Gigi's Playhouse – So far you have contributed more than 300 pairs of sneakers and walking shoes. Most are very slightly worn. Many are brand new and still in the box. You can drop off the shoes any weekend in March. Gigi's thanks you.

With extra blessings for your last weeks of the season of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving,

Father Hank

Thoughts From God's Garden

Sr. Gabriela of the Incarnation, O.C.D.

The Open Dead End

One of the worst aspects of a nightmare is the sense that I am powerless. Something is chasing me, and I can't outrun it. I desperately need to find an object, but I can't remember what it is. I drive into a dead end, and it closes up behind me and I am trapped! There is no way for me to get out!

We can feel trapped in this way when we think of death. It is like a dead end with a concrete wall in front of me and no way to back out. I can't avoid it. There is nowhere to go.

Jesus must have had this feeling of powerlessness. He was nailed to the cross and couldn't move. He felt abandoned by his Father. Yet with all the fears of death upon him, he accepted to die. By accepting it, he walked through death and turned it inside out. He walked through the concrete wall at the dead end, and it melted away before him and became the gate to heaven for every one of us.

WORD OF THE WEEK

Veneration \və-nə-ˈrā-shən

Respect or awe inspired by the dignity, wisdom, or dedication of a person. Specifically, honor shown to Mary, the apostles, martyrs, saints, and others viewed as faithful witnesses to Christ by telling their stories, celebrating their feast days, praying for their intercession, displaying their likeness, and performing acts of devotions, including visits to shrines and pilgrimages to a holy sites. Veneration is distinct from the homage we give to God.

Pronunciation: <https://tinyurl.com/Take5-veneration>

CONTEXT

Veneration of the saints, respect mingled with awe of these spiritual giants, is a recognition of the supernatural excellence of those who substituted their own ideas for those of Christ.

—James McGrath

Venerating the memory of the saints, we hope for some part and fellowship with them.

—Pope Paul VI, Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy

WHY IT MATTERS

Our present culture too often celebrates the vulgar, the cynical, and the rude. Veneration is an exercise in humility as it honors those holy ones whose virtues invite us to reach higher, whose lives are signs of faithfulness and hope.

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church: The Christian veneration of images is not contrary to the first Commandment which proscribes idols. Indeed, whoever venerates an image venerates the person portrayed in it. . . . Images [lead] us to God incarnate (2132).

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What do we know about Saint Joseph?

In terms of facts, almost nothing. Matthew alone highlights Joseph's role. Here we meet Joseph the dreamer who, like his namesake in Genesis, learns of heaven's purposes while he sleeps. The earliest gospel calls the adult Jesus "son of Mary" rather than "son of Joseph." Luke and John prefer to call Jesus "son of Joseph." However, Luke adds, "as was thought." Joseph's last appearance is when Jesus is 12. Jesus is called the carpenter's son, revealing his father's occupation. Tradition says Joseph died when Jesus was 18 with the art of the Eastern Church depicting the death of Joseph.

Matthew describes Joseph as a righteous man who considers divorcing his pregnant betrothed. Then heaven intervenes. Joseph takes Mary home and gives her his full protection. It's an enormous concession to the divine will, especially crediting Mary's perpetual virginity. We always want more from Joseph. He's already given quite a lot.

—Alice Camille, from Questions Catholics Ask <http://tinyurl.com/QCA-saint-joseph>

REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

SOLEMNITY OF JOSEPH, HUSBAND OF THE VIRGIN MARY (MARCH 19)

The strong, silent type

Joseph never uttered a word in scripture. Instead, he let his actions speak for what was going on in his heart. By his actions we know that Joseph not only believed in God but listened for God's promptings and was willing to be led—even to some confusing and difficult places.

READINGS: 2 Samuel 7:4-5a, 12-14a, 16; Romans 4:13, 16-18, 22; Matthew 1:16, 18-21, 24a or Luke 2:41-51a (543 <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/031924.cfm>). "When Joseph awoke, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him."

FAITH IN ACTION

If you have trouble keeping an open mind, look to Saint Joseph for guidance.
