Good Friday: Parish Offices will close by 2:30 PM.
Easter Monday: Offices open at 12 Noon.

"This Week"

Are you receiving "This Week," the e-letter that Father Hank sends out every Friday? It is the best way to stay current on timely parish news, especially when it comes to late-breaking announcements or big news for the upcoming weekend. Simply sign up on our parish webpage and it will appear in your email each Friday. Go to www.sjmillstone.com to sign up.

During this coming Holy Week our eyes will be especially drawn to the crucifix. The large central crucifix behind the altar depicts Jesus in the very last moments before his death. His eyes are looking up toward heaven and one can imagine him saying his last words, "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit." Notice, too, his hands. Our Faith teaches us that Jesus was both human and divine. The artist depicted this truth through the way she fashioned his hands: The left hand, open and reaching to heaven, depicts the Divine Nature of Christ. The right hand depicts his human nature. With his clenched hand Jesus is clinging to the precious gift of earthly life he shared with all of us.

HOLY WEEK EVENTS

The most important days of our faith are here. Let's all try to set those days aside for the Lord and for ourselves as well. ... Come celebrate the mysteries of our faith and be with the Lord & our community during this holy time.

CHRISM MASS

Tuesday, March 26, 4:00 PM

Cathedral of St. Francis of Assisi, Metuchen

Bishop James F. Checchio will celebrate the Chrism Mass with the priests of the Diocese. At the Mass, all priests make a Renewal of Commitment to Priestly Service, recommitting themselves to their Bishop and to their ministry to God and His People; the Bishop and all Priests then ask the people for a pledge of their prayerful support.

The Bishop will also bless and consecrate the Holy Oils, which each parish receives for the rites of anointing. The Oil of Catechumens is used to anoint infants and adults before their Baptism; the Oil of the Sick is used on the forehead and hands of the infirm in the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick; and Sacred Chrism is used to anoint the head of the newly baptized, the foreheads of confirmandi, the hands of a priest at his ordination, the head of a bishop at his ordination, and the altar and walls of new churches.

All are encouraged to join in-person (or watch via livestream), this Chrism Mass.

To watch the Chrism Mass livestream, visit <https://diometuchen.org/chrism-mass>

HOLY THURSDAY – 7:00 PM

MASS OF THE LORD'S SUPPER – CHURCH

Come experience this first day of the Triduum (Three days) as we begin our walk with Jesus from the Upper Room where he instituted the Holy Eucharist, and, in humble service, washed the Apostles' feet. We will reflect on God's word to us about these events, wash feet and celebrate our beginnings as Eucharistic people. After the priest has washed the feet of several parishioners, you are invited to come forward during this part of the Mass and participate in this ancient ritual. It is an opportunity for you to experience what the apostles felt as Jesus washed their feet. Although this invitation is an option, we hope you will feel free to enter into this mystery. A procession with the Holy Eucharist will bring our celebration to a close.

HOLY THURSDAY COLLECTION

The collection at this mass is given to Social Concerns to assist those in need.

HOLY THURSDAY EVENING ADORATION

All are invited to spend some time in adoration before the Blessed Sacrament on Holy Thursday evening at the Church. We will begin immediately after Mass ends. Ministries are also invited to spend some time together in adoration. Please choose a time convenient to you.

GOOD FRIDAY – 3:00 PM

PASSION & DEATH OF THE LORD – CHURCH

During the Service, we will have an opportunity to venerate the Cross (the wood on which our Lord was crucified). This ritual dates back to the earliest times in our Church and has been a tradition with Catholics for many centuries. Although Mass is not held during this most solemn day, the reading of the Word of God and the reception of Holy Communion is celebrated.

GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION

Few places in the world are as precious to Catholics as those where Jesus Christ, Our Savior, walked and taught, lived and died. Through this collection you stand in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land as a witness of peace, supporting Catholics there in parishes and schools, maintaining Christian shrines and caring for refuges in the Holy Land. Your generosity can help keep alive those Holy shrines and provide humanitarian aid for refugees in the Holy Land.

GOOD FRIDAY – 7:00 PM

STATIONS OF THE CROSS – CHURCH

BLESSING OF FOOD

9:00 AM - HOLY SATURDAY – PAVILION

This tradition began years ago when the Lenten fast was much harsher, often including no meat or eggs, not to mention sweets. Families brought their foods to be blessed and then eaten at their Easter Day celebration. to celebrate the new life that Jesus brings us

HOLY SATURDAY – 8:00 PM VIGIL MASS – CHURCH

The Vigil Mass is the most solemn celebration of the year beginning with the lighting of the new fire on the plaza and candlelight procession into church where the readings and song are done in the darkness of waiting. Then the "Gloria" rings out, "Alleluia:" is sung and the water blessed. All of this blends together in a beautiful celebration of the resurrected Christ and the New Life He brings. Traditionally, adults who are becoming new Catholics, celebrate Baptism or make a Profession of Faith at this mass. The Vigil Mass typically takes about 2-1/2 hours, but it is such a wonderful celebration you will wish it had not come to an end!

EASTER SUNDAY MASSES

8:00 AM, 9:30 AM, and 11:30 AM

March 24, 2024

ATTENTION:

WORD OF THE WEEK

Prostration \prā-'strā-shən

Lying face down in a ritual expressing humility, reverence, and submission. Used in the liturgy of ordination, it is also the posture assumed during the entrance ritual on Good Friday when priests and ministers proceed in silence and then reverence the altar before all assembled with a full prostration.

Pronunciation: <https://tinyurl.com/Take5-prostration>

CONTEXT

Prostration can carry the symbolism of death—the death to self that comes before the candidate's rebirth into priestly service. —Beafriar.org website

[The Magi] saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts.
—Matthew 2:11

In Hebrew the root of the word for “dismayed” can also mean “prostrate.” That’s what dismay and fear do. They take the legs from under us.
—Saint Mary's College of Oscott Seminary

WHY IT MATTERS

Postures are powerful. We say much without saying a word. Genuflection and kneeling demonstrate respect. The Asian kowtow—kneeling while touching forehead to the ground—is a deeper display of reverence. The rare full prostration symbolizes total submission to God alone. The ultimate prostration of Jesus on the cross brings about our salvation.

From the Circular Letter Concerning the Preparation and Celebration of the Easter Feasts: This act of prostration [on Good Friday], signifies both the abasement of “earthly man” and also the grief and sorrow of the Church.

RELATED WORDS

Reverence | Humility | Kneel | Bow | Genuflect

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What is humility?

Humility is just about the exact opposite of everything you see in the world nowadays! To discover the essentials of humility, you have to experiment with self-emptying. Humility recognizes that everything comes from God and belongs to God. Therefore, to God alone go all praise, honor, and glory. When you begin with God and not with yourself, your perspective on reality does a dramatic shift. God's will comes first. “Not my will, but yours be done,” as Jesus prays in the Garden of Gethsemane.

When you choose the perspective of a humble heart, you become aware that your proper orientation as creatures should be one of obedience—that is, attentive listening—to God's call. It's precisely the attitude of obedience that led to the salvation of the world, as Saint Paul tells us: “[Jesus] humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross.” Paul explains that humility means putting other people ahead of yourself, thinking of their needs rather than yours. That is so countercultural, jaws will drop whenever you attempt it.

—Alice Camille, from Questions Catholics Ask <http://tinyurl.com/QCA-humility>

REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

FRIDAY OF THE LORD'S PASSION (GOOD FRIDAY) (MARCH 29)

The path of redemption

It is easy to look around and conclude that one of the things human beings do best is inflict suffering on one another. In ways big and small, people look to their own interests at the expense of others. Yet Christ, in obedient love, gathers up all suffering in his Passion and death, and offers us redemption through his ultimate sacrifice and Resurrection.

READINGS: Isaiah 52:13–53:12; Hebrews 4:14-16, 5:7-9; John 18:1-19:42 (40 <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/032924.cf> m). “Christ became obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.”

FAITH IN ACTION

You can participate in Christ's redeeming sacrifice by abandoning yourself to God.
