The Knights Need Your Help!

The Millstone Valley Knights of Columbus is celebrating 30 years as a KofC Council this year. Since being formed as a Council, many of the original members are still active and attend meetings and volunteer to support events. This is wonderful, and it says a lot about these Knights and our Council.

But, to sustain us for the next 30 years, we need more men to answer the call to serve. Being part of the Knights is one of the easiest ways to give back to the community and to respond to that desire to volunteer. The level of commitment is not defined by the Council. We ask that you give what you can, when you can.

February 2023	$24,201
February 2022	$23,583
February 2021	$21,975

Goal for Feb. 2024	$22,200

*The February report indicates that, in recent years, the weekly average for February has moved in the $22k-$24k zone, but this year it was $28k. The spike to $28k occurred because two generous families gave their entire annual gifts in lump sums in February. If we take them out, we average $22k. The good news is we are currently exactly on target.

WORD OF THE WEEK

Liturgy of the Eucharist ˈyü-kə-rəst

Eucharist, Greek for “thanksgiving,” is the formal name for the Mass. Also part three of the four-part movement of the Mass: the Introductory Rite, Liturgy of the Word, Liturgy of the Eucharist, and Concluding Rite. The Liturgy of the Eucharist includes the people’s offering, the Eucharistic Prayer, and the Communion rite.

Pronunciation: <https://tinyurl.com/Take5-Liturgy-of-the-Eucharist>

CONTEXT

Liturgy is, therefore, both word and action . . . the Liturgy of the Eucharist is the action that flows from the word.

—Sister Julia Upton, R.S.M.

The Liturgy of the Word centers its action at the ambo, the Liturgy of the Eucharist at the altar. The first is fundamentally verbal, the second primarily visual. The first is story, the second tangible sacrament.

—Alice Camille

WHY IT MATTERS

We celebrate our faith in two main units of liturgy that serve as the spiritual lungs of the church: Word and Eucharist. The first tells the story of how we came to be the People of God. The second gives thanks for this astonishing reality. In addition, the church teaches in Lumen Gentium that the faithful, “as true witnesses of Christ,” are “obliged to spread the faith by word and deed,” which includes taking part in the Eucharistic sacrifice, “the source and summit of the Christian life.”

From the General Instruction of the Roman Missal: The Church has arranged the entire celebration of the Liturgy of the Eucharist in parts corresponding to precisely [the] words and actions of Christ (no. 72).

RELATED WORDS

Ritual | Mass | Eucharistic Prayer | thanksgiving

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Why are Catholics focused on Eucharist?

A Eucharistic spirituality is ground-level for Catholic life. It’s built on three gospel accounts of the Last Supper, in which Jesus employs well-known forms of Jewish prayers of praise and thanksgiving and urges his friends to “do this in memory of me.” While John’s gospel doesn’t recount this narrative, he does have an extended teaching on Jesus as the bread of life.

Early Church teachers like Justin Martyr, Tertullian, Cyril, Ambrose, and Augustine agreed that Eucharist had several meanings. One is the impact of the Passion of Christ for human history. Another is the unity Christians share as the Body of Christ. Engaging this sacrament has profound moral implications for those who do.

In the medieval church why Jesus makes this self-offering was obscured in debates about how it’s accomplished ritually and theologically. Most believers adored the Host but fewer embraced a life of thanksgiving. The Second Vatican Council sought to restore “full, conscious, and active” participation so that the People of God might remember that the why of Eucharist is more vital than the how.

—Alice Camille, from Questions Catholics Ask <http://tinyurl.com/QCA-Eucharist-focus>

REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER (APRIL 14)

Grace-filled beginnings

The disciples on the road to Emmaus and those in the Upper Room experienced Jesus in bodily form and also in his role as rabbi. He helped them “connect the dots” of their Jewish tradition so they could see that the Resurrection was the fulfillment of the hopes of their ancestors.

READINGS: Acts 3:13-15, 17-19; 1 John 2:1-5a; Luke 24:35-48 (47 <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/041424.cfm>). “He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures.”

FAITH IN ACTION

Allow Easter to help you locate yourself in the vast sweep of history and see that you are the intended beneficiary of God’s grace since the beginning of time.
