This Moment in Prayer, Service and Community

Dear All:

What is your Communion plan? Whatever your concern, your parish has something for you:

If you have physical vulnerabilities or other causes for significant concern, come to a Communion Service in the parking lot. You stay in your car the whole time. Reservations are still required.

If you have no dangerous vulnerabilities and are not in close contact with vulnerable loved ones to whom you, even while you are asymptomatic, might transfer the virus, come to a “Cherubim Mass.” For now, the 11:30 Sunday Mass under the tent. At this and other “Cherubim Masses,” we simply and strictly observe all CDC, NJ, and diocesan basic guidelines for keeping people safe: masks are required, social distancing is observed, Communion will be given at the end of Mass. But temperatures are not taken. Reservations are currently required but, when we expand seating and later move indoors, we will try simply taking names rather than requiring an RSVP.

If your desires fall somewhere in the middle – between wanting to minimize exposure and wanting to practice standard precautions – come to a “Seraphim Mass.” For now, the 9:30 Sunday Mass is our “Seraphim Mass: on Sunday. At this and other “Seraphim Masses,” we will take all the standard precautions PLUS we will take temperatures so you can be assured that no one in the building has a fever. We will also continue to guide you to the next available seat so that you need not worry about people passing you in the aisle. At least one daily Mass each week will be a “Seraphim Mass” – i.e., will practice extra precautions.

We start the tent 11:30 Mass this Sunday and, in the next few weeks, probably in early October, we will have weekday Masses with congregations. Three or four will have standard procedures. The others will have extra precautions.

It was a great blessing to see several first-timers at this week’s Communion Services. I was very glad you seemed so cheery and happy on the way out. I look forward to seeing more soon.

This Moment in Prayer

FIRST COMMUNIONS – God bless the 17 youngsters who made their First Communions last Sunday at the special 12:30 Mass. You were magnificent. The masks did not conceal your glow! Great thanks to the parents and teachers who prepared them. Special thanks to the grandparents in the background. Big blessings for the 16 who make their First Communions this week and the 12 more who will do so at regularly scheduled Masses. Your First Communions are a great day for all of us.

CONFIRMATIONS – God bless the 22 young people who will be confirmed tonight. Again, this is a wonderful day for all of us. Blessings too for 40 others who will be confirmed between now and October 3. It is a very great blessing to welcome you to the world of Confirmed parishioners.

BAPTISMS – Thanks to all the parents who have submitted all their paperwork and have now scheduled their child’s baptism. Thanks too to the folks who are finishing up the paperwork and are about to schedule the baptisms. As with our First Communions and Confirmations, it is a wonderful day for you individually and a wonderful day for our parish and the Church Universal. Hosanna.

OUSTANDING APOSTLES – The transition through this stage of the pandemic has required extra kindness from many people. This week, I am particularly aware of the many people who operate the tech equipment that livestreams Masses and broadcasts Communion Services. Special thanks too to Tina and Tom Lochmann who fog the church after every 9:30 Mass. Thanks to Tim Leicht for painting the guidelines under the tent. Thanks to Al Garlatti for building the platform on which we will celebrate Mass under the tent. Thanks to the High School Youth Group for building the altar we will use under the tent. And a MONSTROUS thank you to John Yablonski who donated one of his hay wagons for us to use as the new stage for Communion Services. The generosity is truly inspired & inspiring. (continued on next page)

PANDEMIC ECONOMIC HELP – Our Social Concerns staff has put together a terrific collection of information that will help you or anyone else who might be suffering from the pandemic's economic consequences. Please contact our Social Concerns Ministry for more information. And be sure to share it with everyone who might benefit.

BISHOP'S APPEAL – Despite the pandemic, you are doing a fine job on the Bishop's Appeal. We are currently at 95% of our goal. If you haven't already made your offering, and if the pandemic or other circumstances haven't decreased your ability to do so, perhaps you could make your contribution this month. If we contribute another $9,000, we meet our goal. Thanks for doing what you have done and can do.

This Moment in Community

PARISH PICNIC – SAVE THE DATES – SATURDAY OCTOBER 10 AND SUNDAY OCTOBER 11 – 1:00 – 3:00 PM. The pandemic version of our annual parish picnic will be different and excellent. There will be plenty of fun activities (socially distanced of course) for the kids and the croquet will go on! Given the complications that food presents this year, our Knights will be serving beverages only and are currently working on a very creative menu of seasonal drinks. More than anything, the gatherings are meant to provide a chance for people to see each other, even if wearing masks. Next week's "This Week" will indicate suggested gathering times for people from different Masses. For example, "If you usually attend the 6:00 pm, try to go on this day. If you usually attend the 11:30, try to go on this day." If it rains, the gatherings will take place under the tent and attendance will be limited to the first 70 people who make reservations for each day. If it does not rain, everyone is welcome, with or without reservations – but with masks! It will be very good to connect with our familiar Mass crowds. Meanwhile, think of creative straws and masks that can accommodate straws. We might just have prizes for the best straws and masks!

PARISH RECORDS UPDATE – Thanks to the steady flow of folks who, after reading recent updates on the parish records project, inquired about their records. If you have any questions about the process, please let me know. Updated records enable us to answer God's call in even more powerful ways.

HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH GROUP – Forget the Hufflepuffs, Slytherins, Gryffindors, and Ravenclaws. Very two-decades-ago. The new way is under the banners of Ignatius, Therese, Maximilian, and Joan (of Loyola, of Lisieux, Kolbe, and of Arc). The organizing principles for this year's Youth Group are pretty astounding. If you have not already joined one of these groups, get to Youth Group this Sunday at 6:00. Light food available. If you feel shy or weird about joining, get over it. Youth Group welcomes you. Period.

*Blessings for you and your last three days of summer. I am ready for the blessings that God seems to prefer to give in autumn, and I hope you are too. I look forward to seeing you here, and at the picnics. Father Hank

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY

September 20, 2020

Why do we celebrate Catechetical Sunday?

Since 1935, at the request of the Vatican, every country chooses a day to acknowledge the importance of the Church's teaching ministry and to honor those who serve the Christian community as catechists. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has designated the third Sunday in September as Catechetical Sunday.

Those whom the community has designated to serve as catechists are called forth to be commissioned for their ministry. Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith.

CARE OF GOD'S CREATION BEAUTY CONTEST

At the beginning of the summer we celebrated the fifth anniversary of Pope Francis' encyclical, Laudato Si: On Care of Our Common Home, in which our Holy Father calls us to join with others to address environmental challenges that face our planet and the people who live in it. The encyclical also reminds us that nature is a constant source of wonder and awe. During the Season of Creation which spans 5 weeks starting September 1 (World Day of Prayer for Creation) and ending on October 4 (Feast of St. Francis of Assisi) we are encouraging parishioners and students to take time to experience the awe and wonder all around us with the "Season of Creation Challenge." Parishioners and students are asked to survey their parish and photograph the most beautiful outdoor area and then submit photos with parish/school name and a brief description to: communications@diometuchen.org. The photos will then be displayed on the diocesan website and on social media.
