MARK YOUR CALENDARS

Setting Up the Christmas Trees

Saturday after Thanksgiving, November 26

This day is turning into a terrific tradition at church. It is when we set up the 200 outdoor trees and enjoy the grilled cheese and tomato soup the Knights cook for all of us. Watch for more details

O Holy Nights!

The fun will be back in full swing this Advent.

Sunday Nights, November 27,
December 4, 11 & 18

This Week

Dear All, Christ's Peace,

The Hymnals Are Coming – The new “Glory and Praise” hymnals should be here for the first Sunday of Advent. They provide the readings and the music. As such, we will no longer need the paperback missals or hymnals. Early in the new year, we will gather your opinions about what type of music helps you to pray.

What's in Your House? – The new liturgical year starts late next month. This is a good time to check on your domestic scripture situation. Do you have a revised version of the New American Bible in a conspicuous place? Are you set up with readings for Mass either through your own subscription to a missal service or through an e-link to the U.S. bishops' web page? A bit of prep and a bit of follow-up really enrich the experience of the readings at church.

The Mass Book – The book for arranging Mass intentions for 2023 will open in early November.

Act of Spiritual Communion – We are still praying the “Act of Spiritual Communion” at the 8:35, 4:45 and 9:30. Most of it is good preparation for communion for in-person folks. The second part (“Though I cannot now receive you sacramentally”) is mostly for live-streamers but is good for in-person folks to pray in solidarity.

Holy C.H.O.W! Orientations – Thanks to the 20 people who joined in Thursday night's orientation session for Holy C.H.O.W! volunteers. Want to do an orientation and serve as a volunteer? Email Michelle at mclaffoon@comcast.net.

Hearing Issues – We want everyone to hear what is happening in Mass. If your hearing is not what it once was AND if you want to hear better at Mass, be sure to connect with the “Listen Everywhere” system in church. Many people have been using it for months and praise it profusely. The system puts the sound into your smartphone or your Bluetooth-enabled hearing aids. Out of concern for all in church, we ask that you listen through hearing aids or headphones. If you must listen through your smartphone speaker, please check before Mass that it is soft enough that those sitting near you cannot hear it. Finally – we will be distributing earphones before Thanksgiving. Again, the goal is for everyone to stay connected.

TECH Your Thing? – Perhaps you can help us keep the livestream streaming? Or maybe you could serve in one of the Tech Ministry's other efforts? Please email Sarah Desmond at sdesmond@sjmillstone.com

I hope this finds you and your loved ones fully enjoying the spectacular days autumn is serving up. With all thanks and best blessings.

WHAT IS HEALING PRAYER?

Throughout our Catholic history, we have cared for the sick using both prayer and medical knowledge. Today we see our hospitals using medical science as well as chaplains, healing prayers, and the Sacrament of the Sick. Both Scientific and Religious types of medical care work together to do God's will.

- Healing Prayer is a prayer of Petition with a member of the prayer team for healing or a special intention. It can be requested by a person, their family, or a friend.
- It is a type of prayer Christians have been making since New Testament times.
- It expects God will heal, although God may not heal what we expect.
- It is not limited to physical healing, but can heal mind, body, spirit and/or soul.
- It may be repeated.
- It often includes a prayer for help and guidance for family members, friends or medical personnel.
- It does not replace normal medical care.
- It is not a sacrament, but a sacramental (like the rosary or benediction).

You are welcome to request healing prayer at our monthly sessions after mass on the 2nd Sunday of the month.

Next Healing Prayer

Immediately after the 4:45 PM, 9:30 AM,
11:30 AM and 6:00 PM Masses

Small is beautiful

"I am only one person," we hear people say. "I'm nobody special. I don't have any power over what happens." We can all summon up plenty of reasons why our contribution to creating a more just global society is withheld. Mother Teresa of Calcutta had a different perspective. "There are no great things, only small things with great love," she said. "Happy are those." A little man named Zacchaeus once climbed a tree to catch a glimpse of Jesus. Take the small step of lifting your vision just a little higher today and you may encounter love.

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 11:22—12:2; 2 Thessalonians 1:11—2:2; Luke 19:1-10 (153). "Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house."

Hallowed be the Eve

Given its association with witches, goblins, and the like, it might seem strange that Halloween is actually a Catholic holiday. Halloween, or Hallowe'en, is an abbreviation for "All Hallows Eve," a celebration the night before All Saints' and All Souls' Days (November 1 and 2). Just like on the night before Christmas or before Ash Wednesday, people make merry on October 31—with costumes and parties for kids and adults alike—before the more solemn days to come. Take a cue this week from Mexican culture's festive Día de los Muertos (Day of the Dead) to pay respects with a joyful heart to those who have gone before us.

TODAY'S READINGS: Philippians 2:1-4; Luke 14:12-14 (485). "When you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you."

Tuesday, Nov 01, 2022

It's the company you keep

"It is the example of the righteous that we must make our own," instructed Pope Clement of Rome. "Seek the company of the saints, for those who seek their company shall be sanctified." Catholics believe in the communion of saints: all who have attained a place at the heavenly banquet—and from whom we seek inspiration, example, and intercession. They include Saint Francis as well as someone's Uncle Frank, Saint Gertrude the Great along with a great many grandmas. Images of both famous and ordinary saints informed the work of artist John Nava for the stunning Communion of Saints tapestries at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels in Los Angeles; let them grace your prayer today.

SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14; 1 John 3:1-3; Matthew 5:1-12a (667). "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven."

Wednesday, Nov 02, 2022

Dressing for the dearly departed

All Souls' Day is celebrated in many different ways, depending on one's culture. Some celebrate the season by dressing up. Others honor Día de los Muertos by having feasts at cemeteries, where stories are told and gifts are offered to the ancestors. Some spend the day with doors and windows wide open as a symbol of welcoming the dearly departed. In all different ways, life is celebrated, the life we shared with loved ones who have died, and the life we continue to share with them and one another in new ways. What will be your All Souls' Day custom today?

COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED (ALL SOULS' DAY)

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 3:1-9; Romans 5:5-11 or Romans 6:3-9; John 6:37-40 (668). "The souls of the just are in the hand of God."

Thursday, Nov 03, 2022

The struggle for racial justice continues

In 1947, the Catholic Interracial Council of Los Angeles sued the state of California to challenge the law that prohibited interracial marriages. At the time laws in 30 states made interracial marriages illegal. The challenge cited Catholic teaching to argue that racism is inherently evil and irrational. The lawsuit succeeded, a step along the long road to racial justice. Peruvian Saint Martin de Porres, born out of wedlock in 1579 to a Spanish nobleman and a formerly enslaved African woman, is patron of mixed-race people and all those seeking racial harmony. Ask Saint Martin to help us keep up the fight for racial justice.

MEMORIAL OF MARTIN DE PORRES, DOMINICAN BROTHER

TODAY'S READINGS: Philippians 3:3-8a; Luke 15:1-10 (488). "He, the LORD, is our God; throughout the earth his judgments prevail."

Friday, Nov 04, 2022

An inspiration in trying times

Many lessons can be drawn from our experience these difficult years of the epidemic. Foremost among them is that we have to be there for each other. During the 1576-78 Plague of Milan, when many city officials fled the scene, Archbishop Borromeo stayed the course, not only organizing a wide-ranging clerical response to the temporal and spiritual needs of the people, but even selling his own possessions and borrowing funds to care for the many hungry, homeless, and dying souls. Dismissing concerns over infection, he made visitations across the diocese and personally ministered to the sick. What can we do today to honor his memory and serve those in need?

MEMORIAL OF CHARLES BORROMEO, BISHOP

TODAY'S READINGS: Philippians 3:17—4:1; Luke 16:1-8 (489). "Prepare a full account of your stewardship."

Saturday, Nov 05, 2022

Loosen that grip

Imagine going through an entire day having left your wallet or purse at home, carrying no money of any kind (cash, credit card, or otherwise). Now imagine going through your entire life that way! More than likely, that's how Jesus lived. He had a lot to say about money, especially our relationship to it, but we never read of Jesus carrying any himself. When he's challenged about paying taxes, he asks to be shown a coin in order to respond, so he likely wasn't carrying any of his own. While Jesus did not command us to live without money, he cautioned us to use it ethically and to be careful how tightly we hold it in our hands—and our hearts.

TODAY'S READINGS: Philippians 4:10-19; Luke 16:9-15 (490). "If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth?"

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
