READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

Malachi 3:19-20a 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12
Luke 21:5-19

Dear All, Christ's Peace,

Our 2022-2023 Necrology – With massive thanks to Sean Glennon, I am happy to report that our 2022-2023 parish necrology has been printed. The pages of the new necrology will be posted on the Gathering Space bulletin board throughout November.

Visits to the Blessed Sacrament – Spending time with Jesus in our Blessed Sacrament Chapel is a beautiful form of prayer. If you want to make a visit during the week when the church door is closed, simply come to the Parish Hall door, get buzzed in, and go to the chapel. If you come after hours, there is frequently someone here to open the door. And remember that our tabernacle sits in a window. You can contemplate the tabernacle from one of the benches in the Divine Mercy Garden. Visit whenever you can. Pray well.

Becca's Friends – Great thanks and blessings for all who made Friday's fire and party so excellent.

BLUE STORM Basketball is Back in Motion – Registration is now open for St. Joseph's Blue Storm Basketball! Boys and girls in grades 1 through 12 are invited to sign up at our website StJoesCYMBasketball.com Come join the fun!

Homebound Gifts: Our Thanksgiving gift will go out the week of November 13. If you or someone you love is homebound and would like to receive a gift from the parish, please email AnnaMaria at arealbuto@sjmillstone.com You can also call her at 908-864-0334.

PJ Anderson – It was another great night for the parish. Thanks to the youth group for hosting the concert, everyone who came to listen, sing along and especially dance. What a joy to see Mikey and Madison DeLucia on stage – it was a fitting tribute to their father's memory.

O Holy Nights - Does your ministry or parish group have what it takes to enter the December 4, O Holy Nights line-dance contest? You need to include at least 12 people and your song must be less than five minutes. Pick your song and polish your act. It will be unforgettable. Almost as cool as croquet.

Blessing and Replacing Linda Mackiw – Linda's involvement in our CCD program spans more than 30 years. She has been an invaluable volunteer and, over two terms of duty adding up to ten years, a highly valued employee. Linda will be retiring on December 31. We thank Linda profoundly for all the graces she has channeled into our CCD program. We bless her and Myron and their new adventures, and we start the process of trying to find just the right person to assume her duties. Email me if you have someone in mind. And please join me in saying a good prayer for Linda and Myron and their next chapter.

With all best blessings, Father Hank

WHAT IS HEALING PRAYER?

Throughout our Catholic history, we have cared for the sick using both prayer and medical knowledge. Today we see our hospitals using medical science as well as chaplains, healing prayers, and the Sacrament of the Sick. Both Scientific and Religious types of medical care work together to do God's will.

- Healing Prayer is a prayer of Petition with a member of the prayer team for healing or a special intention. It can be requested by a person, their family, or a friend.
- It is a type of prayer Christians have been making since New Testament times.
- It expects God will heal, although God may not heal what we expect.
- It is not limited to physical healing, but can heal mind, body, spirit and/or soul.
- It may be repeated.
- It often includes a prayer for help and guidance for family members, friends or medical personnel.
- It does not replace normal medical care.
- It is not a sacrament, but a sacramental (like the rosary or benediction).

Y You are welcome to request healing prayer at our monthly sessions after mass on the 2nd Sunday of the month.

Each of the trees can be dedicated to a deceased loved one of a family belonging to the parish for a $100 charitable contribution. Please go to www.sjmillstone.com. All Christmas trees will be lit and will include a laminated card on which is inscribed the name of the deceased family member or friend to whom the tree is dedicated (although those buying a tree also have the option of having the name of a service organization inscribed instead).

Families are also encouraged to decorate their tree(s) with whatever ornaments or personal mementos they see fit, giving them a sentimental value and we hope that you will invite your family members to come and view this living memorial to loved ones.

Note: All lights will be supplied by St. Joe's. Other decorations can be anything you want to include - but they should be weather-resistant and secured to the tree as the trees are all outdoors.

Formation information

Did you know there are more than 700 religious institutes and societies of apostolic life at work in the United States? That women religious outnumber men religious by more than three to one? That nearly three-fourths of those currently in formation for religious life are Millennials (born roughly from the early 1980s to late 1990s)? That 30 percent of newer entrants to religious life are ethnically and racially diverse, including Asian/Pacific Islander (13 percent), Hispanic (10 percent), black (6 percent), and mixed race (1 percent)? We can't list all 50 facts here, but to download your own post-able, share-worthy list for National Vocation Awareness Week (which starts today), check out Fifty Fun Facts about vocations on the National Religious Vocation Conference website.

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14; 2 Thessalonians 2:16—3:5; Luke 20:27-38 (156). "Pray for us, so that the word of the Lord may speed forward and be glorified as it did among you."

Monday, Nov 07, 2022

Until we rest in You

National Vocation Awareness Week runs annually the first full week of November (this year, Nov. 6-12) to promote vocations to ordained ministry and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to pray and support those who are considering these vocations. Have you ever thought about a vocation to religious life? Do you know someone who could use help discerning such a vocation? Take some time this week to visit Vision Vocation Network for resources to help you discern your path, including a calendar of discernment events, a "Vocation Match" tool to find religious communities, and a treasure trove of helpful articles. This year's theme: "Pathways for a restless heart." Does that speak to you?

TODAY'S READINGS: Titus 1:1-9; Luke 17:1-6 (491). "And the Apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.'"

Tuesday, Nov 08, 2022

A day to vote your values

"When it comes to labor and politics, I am inclined to be sympathetic to the left, but when it comes to the Catholic Church, then I am far to the right." So said Dorothy Day—born this day 125 years ago—voicing the struggle many U.S. Catholics feel on Election Day. Though Day, born in 1897, was a suffragette, arrested for demanding that women get to vote, she never voted in her lifetime once women finally got the right in 1920. Her reasons were complicated. But the U.S. Catholic bishops offer guidance for all who wonder about the worth of their vote, insisting that "participation in political life is a moral obligation."

TODAY'S READINGS: Titus 2:1-8, 11-14; Luke 17:7-10 (492). "We have done what we were obliged to do."

Wednesday, Nov 09, 2022

Build your vocation steeped in love

For nearly a millennium, the Catholic Church has marked on this day the dedication of the Lateran Basilica, so named for the hill upon which it sits just east of the Colosseum in Rome. The cathedral of the Diocese of Rome, it is the official seat of the pope (the bishop of Rome) and is dedicated to both of the New Testament's two most famous Johns: the Baptist and the Apostle. At this halfway point of National Vocation Awareness Week, consider the far-reaching impact of these servants honored in the Catholic Church's highest-ranking edifice. Let's dedicate ourselves as they did to spreading the Good News of love, and through our own holy vocations attain our heavenly reward!

FEAST OF THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 47:1-2, 8-9, 12; 1 Corinthians 3:9c-11, 16-17; John 2:13-22 (671). "His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me."

Make peace with your vocation

Saint Leo the Great is one of the few popes remembered as the "Great." This accomplished preacher and writer was also such a skilled diplomat that he convinced Attila the Hun to spare Rome from attack in 452 and later kept a plundering Vandal army from burning the city. We recognize Saint Leo during National Vocation Awareness Week, a time to recall that God has called us each by name to love and serve in our own way. Saint Leo used his gifts to uplift Christ. How do you use yours? Sharing God's peace is a good place to start.

MEMORIAL OF LEO THE GREAT, POPE, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Philemon 7-20; Luke 17:20-25 (494). "For behold, the Kingdom of God is among you."

Friday, Nov 11, 2022

Holiness cut to fit

Humility and generosity are the key attributes associated with many saints, and fourth-century Saint Martin of Tours is no exception. While on patrol in Gaul as a soldier in the Roman Army, it is said that Martin took pity on a half-naked beggar by cutting his officer's cloak in half and sharing it with the shivering man. The incident is immortalized in Christian art and iconography throughout Europe and became a defining image of what it means to be Christian. Martin took to heart the words of Jesus: "Whatever you did for one of these least of mine, you did for me" (Matt. 25:45). In Martin's honor, extend your compassion beyond your comfort zone today.

MEMORIAL OF MARTIN OF TOURS, BISHOP

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 John 4-9; Luke 17:26-37 (495). "For this is love, that we walk according to his commandments."

Saturday, Nov 12, 2022

Seek unity where possible

For the first thousand years Christianity was one big, mostly happy family. But for a number of reasons the church was divided in the Great Schism of 1054. Saint Josaphat (c.1580-1623) was a Catholic bishop trying to reunite the Eastern Church with Rome. But, alas, he was a little heavy-handed. When he discovered a priest in his diocese was celebrating Mass according to the Byzantine practice, he had him arrested and thrown in jail. This angered a mob of unruly citizens who attacked and violently dispatched Josaphat, tossing his body in a river. We can honor his good intentions today, while perhaps choosing another approach to unity. Pray we unite in those things that matter most.

MEMORIAL OF JOSAPHAT, BISHOP, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: 3 John 5-8; Luke 18:1-8 (496). "I tell you, he will see to it that justice is done for them speedily."
