READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

Micah 5:1-4a
Hebrews 10:5-10 Luke 1: 39-45

- Behind the Scenes of This Week's Readings Third Sunday of Advent

Today's Mass opens with the words "Rejoice, the Lord is near." Formerly called Gaudete Sunday, taken from the Latin word for rejoice, it sets the tone for the last two weeks of Advent. While the readings for the first two weeks of Advent were somber and alluded to the final judgment, the second two weeks are decidedly more upbeat and focus on the joy that should be in our hearts as we remember the birth of our Savior. To highlight this joy, the priest may wear rose-colored vestments and the third candle in the Advent wreath is also rose or pink.

This Moment in Prayer

Saturday Confessions and Conversations –

Sorry about the recent conflicts The open session is back to 9-10. Appointments are required for the 10-11 period. And remember, we can ALWAYS arrange confession during the week at a time that works for you.

The Book of Mass Intentions – The special period for arranging Mass intentions has concluded. Parishioners have arranged 687 intentions. 114 intentions are available for the “recently deceased” – those who have died or will have died between November 2021 and October 2022. Our hope is to leave many open so people can arrange a Mass when a loved one dies. If you have not yet arranged six intentions, you can still arrange more – up to six total. If you have already arranged six intentions, you can, pending availability, arrange up to three more after May 1. We will try to accommodate requests for the recently deceased. We will also clarify the process of requesting Mass intentions through the missions. Your devotion to our beloved deceased is inspiring.

In-car at the 11:30 Mass – The FM radio deal stumbled a few weeks ago. Special thanks to the ushers and Eucharistic Ministers who facilitated the outdoor prayer.

This Moment in Service

Ministry Food Pantry – A new parish ministry will be providing much needed help to area food pantries. The ministry is less about collecting food and more about helping the pantry's managers sort the goods, throw out whatever is past due, clean the shelves, pack the bags, etc.

Respect Life – Go to the Moses for more information about how you can pray and fast to support the spread of respect for life.

Who is better than you? – The numbers have become even more impressive since the last report.

Our Thanksgiving Food Collection – We were hoping for enough filled grocery bags to provide Thanksgiving dinners for 175 families. You provided Thanksgiving dinners for 290 families.

Our Advent Giving Tree for Neighbors in Need

The ministry hoped parishioners would donate about 400 gift cards with a value of about $10,000. You donated 545 cards with a value of $14,845.

Our Advent Giving Tree for Families in Appalachia – The ministry put out 360 gift tags. A significant portion of you included two gifts in each bag – e.g., the request was for size 8 boy's snow boots, but you provided size 8 snow boots AND size 8 sneakers. Remarkable stuff. Ministry members wrapped all the gifts this week and the van took them away this morning.

This Moment in Community

Setting up the Christmas Trees – Terrific thanks to the 125 parishioners who turned out to set up the 200 Christmas trees. You completely outdid yourselves. We should enter a contest for fastest and friendliest tree set up. GREAT thanks too to the Knights who grilled the cheese and stirred the soup. That was one fun day.

Decorating the Trees – Blessings for all who decorated their trees. You have created a beautiful display.

Tik Tok, The Dance – I confess, I first learned about this in October. (Those of us without children or grandchildren sometimes learn a little late about what is cool!) The Tik Tok dance videos are a regular “phee-nom.” After one of our utes teaches us the 30-second line dance, it will be videoed and posted on our parish YouTube station. We have no current plans to post it on Tik Tok – but we are making no promises about what might happen!

Help – We can still use a few more people to help at the Holy Nights events. There are a few jobs that need doing. Please check out the helpers' signup sheet at <https://www.signupge-nius.com/go/10c0f4aa9af23a2f5c70-ohholy>

Online Giving Migration – If you are having any lingering problems with your online giving, owing to lingering problems from the diocesan-wide software migration, please check in with Monica McDevitt. You can call her at the office or email her at mmcdevitt@stjosephsparish.com

Looking forward to seeing you at Mass and at O Holy Nights! And with all best blessings.

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Queen of Mercy, watch over us

Often, we seek guidance, wondering like those around John the Baptist: What should we do? The answer's a simple one: show mercy. Our adversaries, family members, and we ourselves may be in need of such compassion. When La Virgen Morena (the Brown Virgin) appeared to Juan Diego in Mexico and left her image on his cactus-fiber cloak, her promise of mercy to all who appealed to her was sealed on the Americas. Our Lady of Guadalupe, now patroness of Mexico and empress of the Americas, extends her reign across two continents and around the globe. Respond with mercy today.

TODAY'S READINGS: Zephaniah 3:14-18a; Philippians 4:4-7; Luke 3:10-18 (9). "The crowds asked John the Baptist, 'What should we do?'"

MEMORIAL OF LUCY, MARTYR

I can see clearly now

In these darkening days of December, the Scandinavian festival of light held on Saint Lucy's feast day is a cheerful sight to brighten spirits. In these countries—and wherever Scandinavians are found—girls dress as Lucy in long white gowns with wreaths of candles on their heads, carrying sweets in procession as songs are sung. Similar practices can be found in Italy and Croatia. Whether you belong to those ethnicities or not, why not incorporate the festival into your family holiday traditions? Saint Lucy is the patron and protector of eyesight—ask her to help you focus yours, to see more clearly the coming of the radiant king.

TODAY'S READINGS: Numbers 24:2-7, 15-17a; Matthew 21:23-27 (187). "By what authority are you doing these things? And who gave you this authority?"

Tuesday, Dec 14, 2021

MEMORIAL OF JOHN OF THE CROSS, PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Carried by love

Saint John of the Cross was named a doctor of the church for his profound, poetic writings on Christian mysticism. As a spiritual phenomenon, mysticism is difficult to explain. Central ideas, though, connect love and suffering. Today, pause to remember the tragic school shooting at Sandy Hook Elementary and contemplate this meditation by John and remember to love: "I saw the river over which every soul must pass to reach the kingdom of heaven, and the name of that river was suffering. And I saw a boat which carries souls across the river, and the name of that boat was love."

TODAY'S READINGS: Zephaniah 3:1-2, 9-13; Matthew 21:28-32 (188). "Then will I remove from your midst the proud braggarts, and you shall no longer exalt yourself."

ADVENT WEEKDAY

Jesus, our justice and our peace

The coming of Jesus into the world was ultimately the coming of true justice and peace. In today's psalm, these two virtues are said to have "kissed" when the Messiah arrived on Earth. What an incredible image! Every promise of God finds its yes in the One who frees us from sin and death. In the gospel reading, Jesus proves by his miraculous love that he is the long-hoped-for Messiah. Today, remember that as we anticipate Christmas, the fulfillment of all our hopes and dreams is the justice and peace of Jesus. Perhaps not what we expected, but what we need!

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 45:6c-8, 18, 21c-25; Luke 7:18b-23 (189). "Kindness and truth shall meet; justice and peace shall kiss. Truth shall spring out of the earth, and justice shall look down from heaven."

Thursday, Dec 16, 2021

ADVENT WEEKDAY

Differently blessed

Today's first reading refers to an idea repeated many times in the Bible: that children are a blessing from God. Catholic teaching on situations where bearing children is not possible is not the inverse, however. The church has never taught that infertility or any other limitation is a punishment or "curse" from God. To the contrary, Catholic tradition emphasizes that persons in every situation or condition deserve our full attention, respect, and caring concern. How can you practice empathy toward those whose family life has taken a less common direction?

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 54:1-10; Luke 7:24-30 (190). "Among those born of women, no one is greater than John; yet the least in the Kingdom of God is greater than he."

Friday, Dec 17, 2021

ADVENT WEEKDAY (O WISDOM)

Make the wise choice

Today the church begins to sing the O Antiphons to accompany the Advent evening prayer of Mary's Magnificat. These short, sung phrases remind us of our need for salvation and our desire to embody the divine characteristics of our Savior. Today we pray for knowledge. This is not the knowledge that wins arguments around the dinner table, but the knowledge that shines a light on who we are, where we came from, and what we are called to do. It is the knowledge that comes with discernment and brings us peace. May wisdom be our teacher.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 49:2, 8-10; Matthew 1:1-17 (193). "O Wisdom of our God Most High, guiding creation with power and love: come to teach us the path of knowledge!"

Saturday, Dec 18, 2021

ADVENT WEEKDAY (O SACRED LORD)

Walk each other home

The theme for this year's International Migrants Day is "Reimagining Human Mobility." U.N. Secretary-General António Guterres calls upon citizens of the world to "seize the opportunity of the recovery from the pandemic to implement safe, orderly, and regular migration and enable migrants to build more inclusive and resilient societies." Today's O Antiphon recalls the migration of Israel from Egypt to Palestine and asks God to guide the movement of peoples. Because we all can trace our ancestry back to migrating people at one time or another, it is appropriate today to pray for people on the move seeking new homes and new lives in new lands.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 23:5-8; Matthew 1:18-25 (194). "And they shall name him Emmanuel, which means 'God is with us.'"
