READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

Deuteronomy 26:4-10
Romans 10:8-13
Luke 4:1-13

Behind the Scenes of This Week's Readings Today's Gospel- Luke 6:39-45

Luke concludes his narrative on the Beatitudes (which we have been hearing for several weeks) in verses 46-49 which immediately follow today's Gospel. Jesus compares a man who built his house on a solid foundation versus a man who simply builds on level ground and what happens when wind, rain and floods come. Matthew uses the same comparison to end his discourse on the Beatitudes but one man builds his home on rock while the other builds it on sand.. Biblical scholars believe that Matthew spoke of building on sand because the Jews were living on Palestinian terrain. Luke describes digging deep foundations because his audience of mostly Gentile convert lived in more developed areas with towns and cities.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS Fridays in Lent in Church

9:15 AM following 8:35 AM Mass
and 7:00 PM

The Stations are a devotion intended to help us follow Jesus on his way to Calvary. By accompanying him on the Way of the Cross, we see ourselves mirrored in him, gain his courageous patience, & learn to trust God who is with us no matter what we have to go through. Please join us in this ancient prayer of the Church

Dear All – Christ's peace!

This Week in Prayer

Lent Is Almost Here – Ash Wednesday arrives this week. What are you thinking Jesus might want you to give up as a form of prayer, fasting, and alms? And what habit might Jesus want you to take up?

World Marriage Day – What a fantastic celebration it was. Greatest thanks to our “Non-blondie Crew” for putting it together. Extra thanks to our ushers and all liturgical ministers for pitching in. The best part, from my seat? The amazing eye contact between spouses as you renewed your vows. What a gift to see.

First Week's Liturgy Question – Thank you to the almost 100 people who responded to the first liturgy question. The respondents were split almost 50/50 – among those who want and those who do not want to use worship aids (e.g., missalettes or using the projectors). We have more homework to do.

Next Liturgy Question – A few of you raised the obvious question about “BYOM” – i.e., bring your own missalette. Many have been doing that for years and are sold on it. Before asking you about that option, I ask you to check out two options. The first is “Magnificat.” You can check it out at <https://us.magnificat.net/home/discover> Another option is “Word Among Us.” You can review it at <https://wau.org/> Be sure to look at sample pages and sample days for both. Both subscriptions provide hard copies of the daily readings. Both can enrich your prayer outside of Mass.

This Week in Service

Food Pantry Ministry – Our new Food Bank Ministry helps at several locations. The next ministry day will enable volunteers to serve at the Saint Vincent de Paul Food Pantry mentioned above. If you would like to learn more, email Terry Lee at terrytulee25@gmail.com .

Coat Drive – God bless every donor! The drive's organizers were hoping to gather 100 coats. You provided 453. Astonishing? Yes. Surprising? Maybe not. Your kindness seems never to waiver. 24/7/365/Xtian!

Youth Group's Pot Pies – Big blessings for the members of the Youth Group, and their organizers, who cooked enough pot pies for 250 people. The equivalent of 200 pies went to local food pantries and kitchens. The other 50 went to parishioners – and yes – a staff lunch!

Youth Group's Random Acts of Kindness – Twenty of our young people fanned out around town to bring smiles to the roughly 300 people they contacted. They brought treats of all sorts to the police station, the fire stations, SHIP, and even local coffee shops. When Covid restrictions get further reduced, they will go back to the nursing homes. God bless our UTEs.

New Liturgical Ministries – The usual spring recruiting for new liturgical ministers will take place soon. Ushers, Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, Sacristans, Musicians, the whole bit. Time for you to join?

This Week in Community

CCD Schedule - The classes on February 27 and March 1 will be held on Zoom for all students – including home schoolers

Annual Financial Summary – Go to parish webpage to see the one-page summary of our annual audit. This also gives you a look at our collections, overall expenses, PPP experience, total net income, and cash balances. Thanks to God's grace, and your generosity, the news is more than good.

Parish Cleanup Day – Mark Your Calendars – Please mark your calendars for Saturday, April 23 – Saturday, April 30 for a rain date – for our annual parish cleanup. There is a job for everyone. And a donut!

SAGES – Winter Monday – How fun was that? It was a blessing to reassemble the band. Greatest thanks to Jim Blum for creating the hilarious film montage. Thanks, too, to our holy corrupters – Guy Gubitosi, Bernie Demsky and Sal Martino – for leading the poker games and teaching the newbies how to gamble. Better that they should learn at church than in a back alley, right?

With all best blessings – and with an extra prayer for your musings and discernment about how God might want you to observe Lent this year.

Father Hank

2022 BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

Celebrating 40 Years—

Continuing to Fan the Flame of Faith into Service

By now you have received a letter from Bishop Checchio inviting your participation in the 2022 Bishop's Annual Appeal. The diocesan ministries supported by the Appeal directly impact many of the parishioners here in St. Joseph Parish. Your gift provides formation opportunities for our catechists, youth and young adults. In the coming days, you will be receiving a letter from our pastor Fr. Hank encouraging your participation. If you have yet to make your gift, please prayerfully consider doing so today by either returning your pledge card in the mail or going to the secure website:

LIVING WORDS... LENTEN DAY OF RECOLLECTION

We are left with seven “words” spoken by Jesus in the darkness of his suffering. They draw us into his heart and spirit even to the end. These seven words are not only a part of our sacred history, a remembering, but also a lifeblood meant to flow through our veins and into our lived experience. This day of reflection is an invitation to meet some of the men and women who have held these words in their hearts and lived them into the darkness, putting flesh on this sacred legacy. Includes lunch.

LENTEN OBLIGATIONS

So that the Church of Metuchen may be spiritually one in a common observance of Lent, the following days of fast and abstinence are to be observed by all Catholics of the Diocese who enjoy the blessings of good health:

1. The days of fast and abstinence are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.
2. All other Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence.
3. From the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday until the celebration of the Easter Vigil on the evening of Holy Saturday, the Easter fast should be observed so that, with uplifted and welcoming hearts, we may be ready to celebrate the joys of the Resurrection. This ancient tradition, intimately connected with the Rites of Holy Week and the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, is encouraged, especially in those places baptizing catechumens at the Easter Vigil.

The obligation to fast applies only to Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59. To fast in the Catholic tradition means to limit oneself to one full meal during the day so as to experience hunger.

The obligation of abstinence affects all Catholics who have reached the age of 14. Abstinence in the Catholic tradition means to abstain from meat. The obligation of fast and abstinence, as a whole, is a serious obligation. While failure to observe any penitential day in itself may not be considered serious, the failure to observe any penitential days at all, or a substantial number of them without good cause, would be considered a grave matter. Those unable to abstain for a valid reason on any given Friday of Lent are asked to perform some other penitential act, or to abstain on another day.

EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Lord, that we may see

People of goodwill generally assume they're not complicit in racism or racist practices. That's because we describe racism as attitudes, words, and acts intended to harm or subordinate people whose origins are different from ours. However, racism involves omissions as well as actions: in what we fail to do or say to make equality tangible for everyone. Racism can also be institutionalized in laws, education, hiring practices, economic opportunities, zoning regulations, and voting restrictions. Racism operates best under the surface. As Pope Francis reminds us: Let none of us imagine that the conversion of hearts isn't meant for us.

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 27:4-7; 1 Corinthians 15:54-58; Luke 6:39-45 (84). "Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own?"

Monday, Feb 28, 2022

Build it up

Ever wonder what the kingdom of God will be like? Well, look around, because you're already living in it. Not seeing all the love, peace, and justice you were promised? The kingdom of God began with Christ's death and Resurrection and will be brought into perfection by Christ at the end of time. Until then, it's our job as Christians to build the Kingdom up. Pray, discern what God is calling you to do, and act to make this world more harmonious and respectful of the dignity of others. And then of course, wait with hope.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Peter 1:3-9; Mark 10:17-27 (347). "For men it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God."

Tuesday, Mar 01, 2022

Your Rx for Lent

While many Christians focus on feasting today—ahead of tomorrow's fasting—it's also a good time to survey a smorgasbord of penitential spiritual practices, perfect for the upcoming Lenten season. Saint John Chrysostom identifies five in one of his homilies: "I have shown you five paths of repentance: acknowledgement of your own sins, forgiveness of our neighbor's sins against us, prayer, almsgiving, and humility." Sounding more like a doctor than one of the doctors of the church, he concludes: "Now that we have learned how to heal our wounds, let us apply the cures." How will you fill your prescription?

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Peter 1:10-16; Mark 10:28-31 (348). "Do not act in compliance with the desires of your former ignorance."

Wednesday, Mar 02, 2022

ASH WEDNESDAY; DAY OF FAST AND ABSTINENCE

Add another step to your Lenten journey

Ash Wednesday is full of rituals and traditions of fasting, prayer, and almsgiving. But it includes an extra step. As Pope Francis puts it, it is a time "to find concrete ways to overcome our indifference." So in addition to your regular Lenten practices, try to care more deeply about the suffering and disaffected in your community. Volunteer at your parish, a local charity, or for a social cause. Or simply go for a walk and reflect on how Jesus is present in those you encounter along the way.

TODAY'S READINGS: Joel 2:12-18; 2 Corinthians 5:20—6:2; Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18 (219). "And your Father who sees in secret will repay you."

Thursday, Mar 03, 2022

THURSDAY AFTER ASH WEDNESDAY; MEMORIAL OF KATHARINE DREXEL, RELIGIOUS FOUNDER

Exceed expectations

Katharine Drexel was a wealthy heiress in late 19th-century Philadelphia. She rocked that world one day: "Miss Drexel Enters a Catholic Convent—Gives Up Seven Million," the Philadelphia Public Ledger announced when she decided not to simply become a nun but to found her own religious order. Head of the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament, she used her family fortune to found the nation's only Catholic university for African Americans (Xavier University in New Orleans), schools for Native Americans, and more. Are you, too, being called by God to do something unexpected?

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 30:15-20; Luke 9:22-25 (220). "What profit is there for one to gain the whole world yet lose or forfeit himself?"

Friday, Mar 04, 2022

FRIDAY AFTER ASH WEDNESDAY; DAY OF ABSTINENCE

A cleansing fast

A couple years ago, two young white women decided that they needed to more closely align their spiritual practices of Lent with their commitment to being anti-racist. They chose, as they wrote in Sojourners magazine, to try fasting from media that lacked a diversity of voices and to spend Lent engaged with books, films, and podcasts written or directed by women of color. Their goal was to take a step toward repentance, which is one of the hallmarks of Lent. To repent is to turn away from sin, including the sin of racism. What Lenten practice of prayer, fasting, or almsgiving might you contribute toward being more intercultural and helping end racism?

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 58:1-9a; Matthew 9:14-15 (221). "This, rather, is the fasting that I wish."

Saturday, Mar 05, 2022

SATURDAY AFTER ASH WEDNESDAY

Tax forgiveness

Tax collectors in Jesus' time were particularly despised. The Roman occupiers auctioned off the right to collect taxes to the highest bidders, who then aggressively collected taxes from their neighbors in order to turn a profit on their "investment." When Jesus calls Levi the tax collector to follow him and attends a celebration with Levi's tax-collecting cohorts, the shock among the Jewish leaders is evident. But Levi became Matthew, the evangelist, and wrote a vivid account of the Good News. Jesus sees beyond the worst in us and brings out the best. Follow his lead.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 58:9b-14; Luke 5:27-32 (222). "Jesus saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the customs post. He said to him, 'Follow me.'"
