READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

Exodus 3:1-8a, 13-15 1 Corinthians 10:1-6, 10-12
Luke 13:1-9

Behind the Scenes of This Week's Readings Today's Gospel- Luke 9:28B-36

The Transfiguration narrative we hear in Luke's Gospel today is also found in the gospels of Matthew (Mt. 17:1-8) and Mark (Mk.9:2-8) and in Peter's Epistle (2Peter 1:16- 18). The Transfiguration is considered one of the major milestones in the life of Jesus and as such is celebrated by Catholics and other Christians including the Eastern Orthodox Church, Anglicans, Lutherans, Methodists and others. In 2000 Pope John Paul II added a new set of Mysteries to the traditional Joyful, Sorrowful and Glorious Mysteries of the Rosary. The new Luminous Mysteries includes a meditation on the Transfiguration of Jesus. – D. Gearon

*Parish Lenten Penance Service
Tuesday, March 29, 7:00 PM*

The Stations are a devotion intended to help us follow Jesus on his way to Calvary. By accompanying him on the Way of the Cross, we see ourselves mirrored in him, gain his courageous patience, & learn to trust God who is with us no matter what we have to go through. Please join us in this ancient prayer of the Church

STATIONS OF THE CROSS Fridays in Lent in Church

9:15 AM following 8:35 AM Mass
Traditional Stations

and 7:00 PM
Scriptural Stations

The Stations on our church walls are the scriptural stations, rather than the traditional Stations. Pope John Paul II was a big proponent of this practice.

LITTLE BLACK LENTEN BOOKS

Big thanks to all who were inclined to take a few LBBs but took only one per household. We have now satisfied the first wave of demand and have a few books to spare. This week, feel free to take one for everyone in the household who needs one – so you don't have to share! Also, if you know a homebound parishioner who would like an LBB, please deliver one to that person

UTILITY HELP

Get Help With Your Utility Bills Before March 15th

Feast of St. Joseph Patron of Our Parish, March 19

Dear All: Christ's Peace!

PRAYERS FOR UKRAINE

Let's continue to pray, non-stop, for (i) peace in Ukraine, (ii) extra protection for the last, the least, and the littlest in the combat zones, and (iii) ever greater mercy in the hearts of every combatant, including Vladimir Putin. As a powerful way of praying for those causes, I invite you to join two prayers for peace.

This Week in Prayer

Our Lenten Jesus Prayer – We switched over on Ash Wednesday, from our “Ordinary Time Jesus Prayer” to our “Lenten Jesus Prayer.” One of our younger parishioners subsequently suggested an edit that struck me as brilliant. This final version of our Lenten Jesus prayer includes that edit:

*Lord Jesus Christ,
Living Son of the Living God
Please help me to be awed
By Your love and Your mercy*

Our Lenten Marion Prayer – We are also switching our Marion prayer after the petitions – from the Salve Regina (Hail Holy Queen, Mother of mercy . . .) to the Memorare (Remember, Oh most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known . . .)

Ash Wednesday Masses and Services – God bless all of you. We had quite an inspiring turnout for Ash Wednesday. Special blessings for those who were back at church for the first time. What a blessing to see you. Turbo-powered blessings for everyone who helped at all the services and Masses, and triple-turbo-powered blessings for everyone who helped at the 5:00 pm service. Your ability to move from Plan A to Plan B, and then E and F, is extraordinary.

Benediction – Thanks to the women of the “Walking with Purpose” bible study who closed their year with benediction. It was a real privilege to pray with you. Maybe another benediction? .

Sunday 6:00 pm Mass has returned. It will be a quiet, low-key Mass with no music or processions. If we get many people, we will keep it going after Lent.

Saturday Confessions, Anointings, Conversations – First Confessions for the kids who will be making their First Communions in May are every Saturday in Lent at 9:00 am. Hence, confessions etc. will be in the parking lot – but further down by the solar panels – from 10:30 to 11:30. No appointments needed.

Your Liturgy Preferences for Worship Aids – Your answer to the question about “Worship Aids” seems to be going in the direction of individual subscriptions to one of the missalettes. To help you decide, there will be copies of the two leading options – “The Magnificat” and “The Word Among Us.” We are also finding out about bulk discounts. Stay tuned.

This Week in Service

New Ways to Help Others Respect Life – Our Respect Life ministry invites you to help them help The Pregnancy Aid Center which, in turn, helps women in crisis pregnancies. We need people to unpack and organize the donations for these women and their children. One group went this week and found it to be a terrific experience. Might you help? Email Marianne Gennaro at mgenn.3@gmail.com or Jeanine Cavanagh jcavanagh@sjmillstone.com.

This Week in Community

Covid Restrictions – We continue to honor guidelines for three distinct church situations – Mass, CCD, and other parish gatherings. MASS – The recent reduction in protective practices makes no difference to Mass. We will continue to provide options for everyone. CCD – As always, our CCD program will follow the letter of the law as laid out by the Hillsborough School district. The only change that matters is the change in the school policies..

Parish Cleanup Day – Mark Your Calendars – Please mark calendars for Saturday, April 23, with Saturday, April 30 for a rain date, for our annual parish cleanup. There is a job for everyone. And a donut!

Envelope Glitch – It was matter of time before supply-chain issues complicated church life. Our problem is rather mild: the contribution envelopes that went out on February 23 are not stuck in the Suez Canal, but they were improperly packed and late in delivery. The envelope company seems to be on the case. Until the glitch is resolved, you can use a plain envelope with your name on it. Thanks for helping the parish.

SEND US YOUR BABY NEWS – If, since the pandemic's start, you have been blessed with the arrival of a child, grandchild, or great-grandchild, please share the news. Our first round of announcements will probably feature many babies. After that we will share the news in smaller batches. And whenever we announce a birth, we will pray for that baby on Sunday. We all need good news. Share your baby news by clicking here.

With all best blessings – and with an extra prayer for your prayers for peace and for Lent,

F. Hank

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

A heart-warming witness

She was divorced—twice. Mary Clarke Brenner (1926-2013) lived in Beverly Hills: not an address associated with holy living. Yet this remarkable woman would go on to become the “Prison Angel,” dedicating her life to criminals in a maximum-security jail. Mother Antonia, as she was later known, didn't just visit the incarcerated; she moved into the jail and lived among them for years. Others sought to imitate her generous spirit and formed the Eudist Servants of the Eleventh Hour—mindful that any of us might need saving in the end. “Warm the coldest heart,” was her prayer. Pray for prison ministries.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 15:5-12, 17-18; Philippians 3:17—4:1; Luke 9:28b-36 (27). “Abram put his faith in the LORD, who credited it to him as an act of righteousness.”

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Take a reverent knee in solidarity

The BBC named 45-year-old Xaverian Sister Ann Rose Nu Tawng of Myanmar among the news agency's list of “100 inspiring and influential woman from around the world” for 2021. Stunning news photos and videos showed her kneeling with arms outstretched before security forces, asking them to shoot her instead of peaceful protesters of the country's military takeover. Two of the armed police dropped to their knees and folded their hands. On this, the last day of National Catholic Sisters Week, it's a dramatic example of the selfless sacrifice of religious women who give their lives in service to and love of Christ. The vast majority don't become sensations for their acts, but they are still heroes.

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 9:4b-10; Luke 6:36-38 (230). “For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you.”

Tuesday, Mar 15, 2022

LENTEN WEEKDAY

A cardinal's titular role

It was a huge honor for the United States when—on this day in 1875—Pope Pius IX elevated New York's Archbishop John McCloskey to become the first-ever cardinal from the United States. It meant American Catholics finally had a seat at the table. All cardinals belong to the College of Cardinals, which elects and counsels the pope. And all cardinals automatically assume honorary leadership of dioceses and parishes around Rome—meaning they, too, could be promoted bishop of Rome one day. While our church preserves such hierarchical traditions, God sees beyond rank to the quality of service we render, regardless of station. Pray for all to serve the church with wisdom and love.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 1:10, 16-20; Matthew 23:1-12 (231). “Do not be called ‘Master’; you have but one master, the Christ.”

Wednesday, Mar 16, 2022

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Be bold in your witness for justice

On this day in 1877, the renowned black Catholic scholar and activist Dr. Thomas Wyatt Turner was born in Hughesville, Maryland. The first African American to earn a Ph.D. in botany (or in any subject from Cornell University), Turner would go on to co-found both the NAACP in 1909 and the Federated Colored Catholics in 1924. Via both organizations, he would lobby to end segregation at the Catholic University of America as well as in U.S. seminaries (especially that of the Josephites, an order founded to serve African Americans). He died in 1978 at the age of 101. May his legacy be for all of us a model of defiant witness for the oppressed.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 18:18-20; Matthew 20:17-28 (232). “Remember that I stood before you to speak in their behalf.”

Thursday, Mar 17, 2022

MEMORIAL OF PATRICK, BISHOP, MISSIONARY

Have you answered the call?

In the modern Western world, middle-class people rarely face death by starvation or religious persecution. Saint Patrick, the great evangelizer of Ireland in the 600s, faced both these threats when he finally acted on his long-avoided calling to bring the Christian message to the people of Ireland. Have you ever inconvenienced yourself to carry out something God called you to? Take a moment today to reflect on your own calling in life and the sacrifice it entails.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 17:5-10; Luke 16:19-31 (233). “If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead.”

Friday, Mar 18, 2022

MEMORIAL OF CYRIL OF JERUSALEM, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

The doctor prescribes some “me time”

In a series of lectures known as the Catechesis, Saint Cyril of Jerusalem instructed fourth-century catechumens in the faith. His lessons continue to be enlightening: “The present is the season of confession,” Cyril writes of Lent. “Confess what thou hast done in word or in deed. . . . Forsake things present and put your trust in things to come. Have you run so many circles [over] the years busied in vain about the world, and have you not 40 days to be free for prayer, for your own soul's sake? ‘Be still, and know that I am God,’ says the Scripture. . . . You are running for yourself, see to your own interest.” Note well: You have the permission of a saint and doctor of the church to go off the grid for a time and tend to your own spiritual well-being.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 37:3-4, 12-13a, 17b-28a; Matthew 21:33-43, 45-46 (234). “Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing.”

Saturday, Mar 19, 2022

SOLEMNITY OF JOSEPH, HUSBAND OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

First spouse

On May 1, 2013, the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments instructed that the name of Saint Joseph, husband of the Blessed Virgin Mary, be inserted into all the Eucharistic Prayers of the Mass. So now when the priest invokes the name of the Mother of God during the prayers at the altar, he includes “with Blessed Joseph, her spouse.” Joseph is our model of the just man, the good husband. Pray for husbands everywhere, that Joseph be their model and a source of strength.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Samuel 7:4-5a, 12-14a, 16; Romans 4:13, 16-18, 22; Matthew 1:16, 18-21, 24a or Luke 2:41-51a (543). “He did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took his wife into his home.”

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
