Easter Blessings!

We want to take this opportunity to thank all those in our parish who witness through the generous giving of their Time, Talent and Treasure! As we celebrate Christ's Resurrection, we are reminded that we are not alone. We are part of God's family. Today, we give thanks to God for you and your family.

*"May you and your loved ones rejoice in God's unending love as you celebrate Christ's resurrection on this Easter Sunday. May Our Lord's richest blessings be yours all through the Easter season."
Father Hank and the Parish Staff*

This Week in Prayer

Confirmation – God bless the 50 young people who were confirmed last week. Great thanks to their families and their CCD teachers. Thanks, too, to the many volunteers who made the Confirmation Liturgy so prayerful and beautiful. And blessings for Jim Jungels, Linda Mackiw and our staff for all their efforts.

Spiritual Exercises Tune-up – Have you made the Exercises? Save the date for Saturday morning, May 14.

This Week in Service

Assisting Ukrainian Refugees in Poland and Ukraine
Donations to the Poor Box from April 14-May 5 will be sent to the "Blue Nuns" – The Little Servant Sisters of the Immaculate Conception – for their work in helping the refugees in Poland AND in Ukraine. I have told Mother General that she can rely on us for at least $10,000 of support. Some of this will also come from the Social Concerns account. We will revisit our support at Pentecost to see if we should try again. It all depends on the course of the war and the refugees' movements.

Pins to Support Ukraine – Thanks to Dianne Speronello and all who assembled the 500 yellow and blue pins that show our support for Ukraine.

Respect Life Novena – April is a Respect Life month. We invite you to pray a Novena for Life from April 22 until April 29. Get a copy of the Novena Prayers from the Moses Table.

The Baby Bottles are Coming Back on May 1 – Our Knights and our Respect Life Ministry will distribute Baby Bottles that you are to fill with loose change and then return. All proceeds support The Center for Great Expectations (CGE) in Somerset, NJ. CGE provides priceless assistance for pregnant women and many others.

This Week in Community

Spring Cleanup – It would be superb if we can match recent years' turnout for the annual spring cleanup on Saturday, April 23 at 9:30 AM. See our parish webpage for the list of jobs. There is something for everyone.

There will also be ample coffee and donuts under the tent. The task is basically for about two hours of your time. Check out the list. Enlist a friend. Get into spring!
Spring Blooms – God bless our 55 mostly-at-home parishioners and all those who delivered tulips to them.

With all best Easter blessings. Happy Resurrection!

Father Hank

SOLEMNITY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD (EASTER SUNDAY)

The tree of life blossoms again

A teaching from the Law of Moses says it all: "Cursed be the one who hangs from a tree" (Deut. 21:23). The body of such a person was to be buried the same day, or the land would be defiled. Religious leaders sought a verdict of crucifixion from the Romans for precisely this reason: to quell talk that Jesus was God's chosen. It's also why Jesus' disciples rushed to gain permission to take him down from the cross that same day. Like every kingdom paradox, of course, the "cursed tree" becomes a tree of life for those who believe. Celebrate this hope today!

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 10:34a, 37-43; Colossians 3:1-4 or 1 Corinthians 5:6b-8; John 20:1-9 or Luke:24:1-12 (42, 41) or, at an afternoon or evening Mass, Luke 24:13-35 (46). "They put [Jesus] to death by hanging him on a tree."

MONDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

How do you solve a mystery named Mary?

There are so many women named Mary mentioned in the New Testament that we're not even certain how many there were—could be six to nine—because the same women might be identified different ways. The various Marys get mentioned 54 times in 49 verses, so it's hard to sort them all out. Not only does it reveal to readers that Mary was a popular name then, but also that Jesus had a lot of women followers who were very close to him—women who were key figures in the key moments of his life and ministry, his death, and his Resurrection. Which Mary was which might confuse us today, but their various important roles in his life are clearly deserving of honor.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 2:14, 22-33; Matthew 28:8-15 (261). "Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went away quickly from the tomb . . . and ran to announce the news to his disciples."

Tuesday, Apr 19, 2022

TUESDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

Grant us peace

Today is the anniversary of Benedict XVI becoming pope in 2005. As a theologian, Benedict wrote extensively of faith and politics in pluralistic societies. One of his prayers pleads: "God of peace, bring your peace to our violent world: peace in the hearts of all men and women and peace among the nations of the Earth." This is a good prayer to have on hand, particularly on a day that marks the anniversary of the Oklahoma City bombing in 1995.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 2:36-41; John 20:11-18 (262). "Jesus said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping?'"

Wednesday, Apr 20, 2022

WEDNESDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

Look up!

The disciples on the road to Emmaus were grieving Jesus but failed to recognize him when he approached them. In our daily rush to and fro, it is easy to overlook what is happening all around: the dance of creation, day in and day out. As Earth Day approaches, take a moment from the busyness to contemplate with awe the beauty great and small. Keep these words of Saint Augustine in mind about the book of God's creation: "Look above you! Look below you! Read it. God, whom you want to discover, never wrote that book with ink. Instead, He set before your eyes the things that He had made. Can you ask for a louder voice than that?"

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 3:1-10; Luke 24:13-35 (263). "Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him."

Thursday, Apr 21, 2022

THURSDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

Journey into the unknown

The worldwide church is now about halfway through a process with a rather unwieldy name: "Synod on Synodality." The idea is for the church at all levels to "listen and dialogue." The word synod means "to travel together," and this synod is refreshing, as a bottom-up approach in a church accustomed to top-down leadership. By its nature, there is no clarity about where it leads, but the process itself is the main point. Let's pray the church's Synod Prayer for Unity, that the process "lead us closer to [God's] Son and so to one another."

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 3:11-26; Luke 24:35-48 (264). "He stood in their midst and said to them, 'Peace be with you.'"

Friday, Apr 22, 2022

FRIDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

Embrace the Resurrection: Plant a garden

The Easter season gives us ample time and resources to delve into the Paschal Mystery. Scripture, liturgies, and feast days all help us embrace the Resurrection as part of our own story. That's not always easy to comprehend. Fortunately, there are glimpses of Resurrection everywhere! So much of Easter is represented through nature—lilies, tulips, lambs, bunnies—indeed the whole season of spring helps us bodily embrace the Resurrection. This Easter season, consider planting a garden or fostering a kitten (April is National Garden Month as well as Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Month, and today happens to be Earth Day as well!). Embrace the Resurrection in the world all around you.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 4:1-12; John 21:1-14 (265). "Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish."

Saturday, Apr 23, 2022

SATURDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

Every day an Easter

Easter isn't just a day, it is a season, an ongoing feast. The Octave of Easter (Easter Sunday and the seven days that follow) has been, since the earliest centuries of Christian history, a time of extended celebration. The joy of Easter Sunday is prolonged for a full eight days, an octave of rejoicing. Every day of the Octave is treated as another Easter, a tradition preserved in our liturgy, with readings and rituals that mirror what occurs on Easter Sunday. Rise up! It's still Easter!

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 4:13-21; Mark 16:9-15 (266). "When Jesus had risen . . . he appeared first to Mary Magdalene."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
