Dear All – Christ's peace.

This Week in Prayer

Thanks and Blessings to and for All Prayer Participants – To and for all who prayed the Triduum at church. Your presence beautified the prayer. Your presence also helped lift us beyond our pandemic blues. Pre-pandemic, roughly 2,000 people joined in our Easter Masses. This year, we had about 1,700. That is great post-pandemic progress. (Is there someone you might coax to come back in person?) Plus, unlike before the pandemic, we were blessed with the presence of many online congregants. There were about 5,000 views during the Triduum. Finally, thanks to all for being so cooperative about the seating guidelines.

Extra Thanks and Blessings for All the Providers – Double blessings and great thanks for and to all who enriched the prayer – including the ushers, the sacristans, the tech folk, the Eucharistic Ministers, the musicians, the lectors, all who decorated the church, the folks who facilitated the morning and evening Stations of the Cross, and all whose liturgical ministries fall under more than one heading and those whose ministries fall under no heading. The generous involvement of so many makes all the difference.

6:00 pm Mass – The Sunday evening 6:00 pm Mass will continue until the Sunday before Memorial Day. It will then resume on the Sunday of the Parish Picnic, the Sunday after Labor Day

Spiritual Exercises Tune-up – Have you made the Exercises? Maybe save the date for the morning of Saturday, May 14.

This Week in Service

Assisting Ukrainian Refugees in Poland and Ukraine

– Thank you for your generous participation in the effort to help the “Blue Nuns” – The Little Servant Sisters of the Immaculate Conception – help the Ukrainian refugees in Poland AND in Ukraine. I will report next week on how much you have contributed, how much we have transferred, and how the sisters are doing. If you want to contribute electronically, email Monica McDevitt in our business office mmcdevitt@stjosephsparish.com

This Week in Community

The Baby Bottles are back. Our Knights and our Respect Life Ministry will distribute Baby Bottles that you are invited to fill with loose change and then return. All proceeds support The Center for Great Expectations (CGE) in Somerset, NJ. CGE provides priceless assistance for pregnant women and many others.

With all best blessings! Fr Hank

READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

Acts of the Apostles 1, 14, 43-52
Revelation 7:9, 14b-17
John 10:22-30

Behind the Scenes of This Week's Readings

Today's Gospel – John 20:19-31

Although the Cycle C Readings for Mass are used this year and we usually hear Luke's Gospel on Sunday, John's Gospel is used for the Sundays in Easter Season. Today's Gospel is taken from the final chapter of John, Biblical scholars agree that it was written by someone other than John a short time after his Gospel was published. It is accepted in the official Canon of the Church. If one can use one word to describe the theme of John's Gospel it is Revelation – the Revelation of Jesus as the Son of God...the Revelation of Jesus as Lord. This final chapter is a summation of all that John has written before. It links the events of the post-resurrection with events that have gone before. Perhaps, one can look at it as an epilogue....the final word.

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Crown thy good with brotherhood

Some of us are born into an abundance of siblings in our families, and some not. But all of us are gifted with sisters and brothers in the church. Today on Religious Brothers Day, we're reminded how "The vocation of the brother is part of the answer that God gives to the absence of brotherhood which is wounding the world today" (Identity and Mission of the Religious Brother in the Church). If you feel stirred to be a special kind of brother to those in need, consider casting your net in the direction of this unique vocation.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41; Revelation 5:11-14; John 21:1-19 (48). "Cast the net over the right side of the boat and you will find something."

MEMORIAL OF ATHANASIUS, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Stand and be counted

Called "Father of Orthodoxy," "Pillar of the Church," and "Champion of Christ's Divinity," Saint Athanasius the Great was an extraordinary early Christian leader. He was the bishop of Alexandria and best known for fighting the heresy of Arianism, which argued that Jesus was begotten by, but not co-eternal with, God the Father. He suffered for his efforts though, making lots of enemies and spending 17 years in exile. Historian Cornelius Clifford said of him: "His career almost personifies a crisis in the history of Christianity." You may not earn the honorific the "Great," but can you stand up for the truth even if it costs you something?

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 6:8-15; John 6:22-29 (273). "This is the work of God, that you believe in the one he sent."

Tuesday, May 03, 2022

FEAST OF PHILIP AND JAMES, APOSTLES

Team up

Saint James the Lesser gets paired with various religious figures. He shares today's feast with Philip because their martyred bodies arrived together for burial. He shares his first name with Saint James the Greater, one of the first disciples to follow Jesus and the first apostle martyred. But James the Lesser—named for being younger than the elder James—is best known for being partnered with Jesus. Called the "brother of the Lord" though actually a cousin, legend says James looked so much like Jesus that even the Virgin Mary had trouble telling them apart. It is good to have a partner in faith to rely on.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 15:1-8; John 14:6-14 (561). "He appeared to James, then to all the Apostles."

Wednesday, May 04, 2022

EASTER WEEKDAY

Spread the good word

On this day in 1493, Pope Alexander VI issued his monumental papal bull Inter caetera, meant to resolve a dispute between the kings of Spain and Portugal concerning exploration and colonization of the Americas. The document helped spread the Catholic faith across the Americas but also led to brutal colonialism and slavery in the same lands. As the church continues to live in the long shadow of this watershed document, its core wish still rings true: that "the Catholic faith and the Christian religion be exalted and be everywhere increased and spread."

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 8:1b-8; John 6:35-40 (275). "Let all the earth cry out to God with joy."

Thursday, May 05, 2022

EASTER WEEKDAY

Viva our vibrant church

Today is Cinco de Mayo, a commemoration of a key Mexican military victory that, in the United States, has evolved into a general celebration of Mexican culture. Mexican Americans have made enormous contributions to the U.S. church, which is rapidly becoming majority-Hispanic. Take a moment today to learn about the V Encuentro, a broad-based effort to listen and respond to the wisdom and the needs of Latinos in the U.S. church.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 8:26-40; John 6:44-51 (276). "I am the bread of life."

Friday, May 06, 2022

EASTER WEEKDAY

Follow the way of healing

"Healing is an essential dimension of the apostolic mission and of Christian faith," says Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI in his book Jesus of Nazareth (2007). "It can even be said that Christianity is a 'therapeutic religion, a religion of healing.'" Much of healing is beyond our control, whether it comes from divine grace or medical resources available to us. However, as disciples of Christ, we can be a healing presence to those who are sick and suffering by listening more than speaking and avoiding the temptation to have all the answers in situations that remain a mystery.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 9:1-20; John 6:52-59 (277). "Lay his hands on him, that he may regain his sight."

Saturday, May 07, 2022

EASTER WEEKDAY

Welcome back

It was hard to be a Christian during the early persecutions of the church. Many neophytes quit the faith to avoid imprisonment, torture, and even death. But when the persecutions ended with the Edict of Milan in 313, the question arose of whether they should be allowed back into the church. From that controversy it became apparent that the church was not an elite body of the sanctified, but a mix of saints and sinners, like the field of wheat and weeds. For the church to truly embody Christ, it must be dedicated to forgiveness and an open-door policy. Who can you forgive today?

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 9:31-42; John 6:60-69 (278). "Jesus then said to the Twelve, 'Do you also want to leave?'"

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
