THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Effective this Easter season, the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord will be permanently transferred from Thursday of the Sixth Week of Easter to the following Sunday, the Seventh Sunday of Easter, in all Catholic dioceses in New Jersey. This year, the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord will be observed on Sunday, May 29. This liturgical observance is an integral dimension of the completion of Our Lord's paschal mystery and, after much discussion, the Catholic Bishops of New Jersey collectively discerned that the transferring the observance to the following Sunday would allow for greater participation among the faithful.

Dear All – Christ's peace

This Week in Prayer

First Communion – was a grace to behold. The First Communicants were incredibly into it. What an inspiration. God bless all you First Communicants and your new connection with Christ. May the graces stay in your heart forever. And God bless your families and teachers.

This Week in Service

Helping the Sisters Help Ukraine's Refugees –

The sisters are currently helping us to learn more about other groups that might need our help, and who could make great use of the (mind-boggling) $90,000 you have contributed. That amount appears to be more than the sisters could currently use, given the scale of their terrific operations. We will find a beneficiary who, like the sisters, serves with no overhead expenses.

May Crib Collection – The collection crib is in the Gathering Space. Please consider donating some of the goods that new moms need most – especially bottles, diapers, baby wipes, toiletries, baby formula, and layettes. Gently used clothing is welcomed for children up to age five. Please do not leave furniture in the Gathering Space; we will connect you to PAC for a direct donation.

Operation Rice Bowl – Our parish's Lenten almsgiving, through Operation Rice Bowl, provided $1,441. Big thanks and blessings for our CCD students and others who helped. You did a superb job!

This Week in Community

The Parish Food Truck – Hosanna and then some! We received word that, in terms of our insurance through the diocese, the food truck is good to go. We can start using it. Look for more info about how to join parish efforts to provide great food to locals who need it. (N.B. – The chancery insurance folks are still not budging on the skating rink – but we will take the great news about the food truck)

Naming the Food Truck – We will soon provide information about how to participate in the contest to name the parish Food Truck. The naming process will be very fun. Stay tuned.

With continued thanks and blessings and alleluias,

Father Hank

MILLSTONE VALLEY COLUMBIETTES

The Columbiettes of our parish are pleased to announce Kelly Irwin as our nominee for the Student Good Citizen Award. Kelly has been active in Girl Scouts, the HHS Theater program, Boro Buddies (as Coordinator and volunteer of this mentoring program for elementary students) and Lend-A-Voice (as co-founder of this acapella group that provides music to nursing homes and the local community). Her name has been presented to the State Council Columbiettes who will select one high school senior Catholic girl in New Jersey who demonstrates leadership and service. Kelly will receive a certificate and monetary gift from the Millstone Valley Columbiettes.

We are also pleased to announce George Meyer as our nominee for the Humanitarian Award. George is truly dedicated to keeping us safe and maintaining the natural beauty of our community. He repairs public paths, picks up trash along the roadway and has filled in pavement cracks and pulled weeds in our church parking lot. He does this on his own without seeking praise or recognition. His name has been presented to the State Council Columbiettes who will select one deserving citizen from New Jersey who helps improve the welfare and happiness of others. George will receive a certificate and monetary gift from the Millstone Valley Columbiettes.

SOCIAL CONCERNS

Janine Cavanagh
jcavanagh@sjmillstone.com

Pregnancy Aid Center (PAC) – Join the parishioners who, every other Wednesday, help the PAC help expectant moms with physical necessities and many forms of support. Contact Jeanine.

Saint Vincent de Paul Food Pantry – Our parish ministry to help at the food pantry is making its next trip on Saturday, May 28. Don't be shy. If you are thinking of doing this, take the plunge and check it out. The people are so very welcoming and the work has immediate pay off! If you are interested in volunteering, please reach out to Terry Lee at terrytulee25@gmail.com.

Appalachia Mission – The parish trip to West Virginia, to build houses, will start June 11 and end June 18. There are still openings for two more volunteers. (Maybe a couple?) If you feel called to assist, please email Jeanine..

This Week's Poor Box – This week's Poor Box donations will support HOME (Housing-Outreach-Multifaith-Empowerment), the organization formerly known as IHN.

GRADUATION CELEBRATION

Are you or a family member (who is a registered parishioner or a regular) graduating from High School, Trade School, College, or Grad School this year?

Please join our prayers and praises for graduates on

Sunday, June 5 at 11:30 Mass

We want to recognize you and pray for you and give you a few reminders of your parish's gladness over you. If you are graduating and can attend that Mass, please complete the form on our parish website.

Registration closes on May 27

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

How to find the missing peace

The first step to peace is to ensure the hungry are fed. This requires that workers are fairly compensated. Labor priest George G. Higgins, who died on this day in 2002, recognized a vital connection between workers' unions and Catholic social teaching. He actively supported Cesar Chavez in arbitrating for farm workers. Higgins also advocated for the United Auto Workers and Kentucky coal miners. Higgins acknowledged that, "All members of the white community and especially those of us who have benefited most from the system are responsible, in varying degrees, for the tragic plight of black Americans." Learn about the seven themes of Catholic social teaching.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 15:1-2, 22-29; Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23; John 14:23-29 (57). "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you."

EASTER WEEKDAY

Here comes everybody

We hear a lot about "inclusion" these days—in our schools, workplaces, churches, and communities at large. For Christians, inclusion isn't just a buzzword—it's at the heart of our faith. Jesus didn't just include the marginalized, he put them front and center. Saint Paul emphasized repeatedly that we are one in Christ. The very word catholic means "universal." And yet, humanity has never been more rife with division—from the world stage down to our own families. How can we strive to overcome differences? To respect the dignity of every person? To celebrate diversity while living in solidarity? Everyone belongs. Let's commit to that much, at least.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 16:11-15; John 15:26—16:4a (291). "The hour is coming when everyone who kills you will think he is offering worship to God."

Tuesday, May 24, 2022

EASTER WEEKDAY

Our Lady of Sheshan, pray for us

Today marks the World Day of Prayer for the Church in China, established in 2007 by Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI. Benedict's original proclamation included pastoral guidelines for a church that had been driven underground by years of Communist rule, plagued with complicated issues relating to the separation of church and state. One year later, the pontiff penned a special prayer for today, seeking the intercession of Our Lady of Sheshan—the Chinese equivalent of "Mary, Help of Christians," whose feast is also today. Use Benedict's prayer as you ask God to guide and further bless China's embattled Catholic community.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 16:22-34; John 16:5-11 (292). "His household rejoiced at having come to faith in God."

MEMORIAL OF MARY MAGDALENE DE' PAZZI, CARMELITE MYSTIC

This little light

The life of a mystic may seem romantic and exciting, with ecstatic visions and union with God at your fingertips. The reality is something else, as the life of Mary Magdalene de' Pazzi, 16th-century Carmelite mystic from Italy, attests. It was truly a tale of agony and ecstasy. After a period of visions, at the tender age of 19 she experienced five long years of desolation. She referred to her heart as a pitch-dark room with only a feeble light shining that only made the darkness deeper. Thankfully her trials ended in 1590 with mystical union once again. Though perhaps not so dramatic, trials of one sort or another visit all of us. Hold onto the feeble light if that is all you see at the moment. Have faith that it will brighten.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 17:15, 22—18:1; John 16:12-15 (293).

"When he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth."

SOLEMNITY OF THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Save me a seat

The epic movie version of the Ascension, today's feast, is exciting to imagine: Christ floating upward, astonished disciples gaping, full orchestra swelling as the Earth becomes a blue ball below Jesus. However it happened, the Catechism of the Catholic Church says the point is that "Christ's ascension marks the definitive entrance of Jesus' humanity into God's heavenly domain." He is there, says the catechism, preparing a place for us. The mystics tell us that we don't have to wait for death for that place next to Jesus; we can go there in prayer. Now that's epic!

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 1:1-11; Ephesians 1:17-23 or Hebrews 9:24-28; 10:19-23; Luke 24:46-53 (58). "As he blessed them he parted from them and was taken up to heaven."

EASTER WEEKDAY

Be a voice in the wilderness

Nobody ever sets out to be a prophet. And why would they? Scripture and history have both taught us that prophets are often treated poorly because people don't want to hear their message, especially when it calls them to change their ways. Prophets in scripture were people called to speak on behalf of God. Like prophets today, they called people and communities to be their best selves, to truly live as people of God and people for others. Today's prophets include folks like Pope Francis and Malala Yousafzai, Pakistani activist for female education and a Nobel Peace Prize laureate. They may even include you. Search your own heart. How is God calling you?

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 18:9-18; John 16: 20-23 (295). "Do not be afraid. Go on speaking, and do not be silent, for I am with you."

Saturday, May 28, 2022

EASTER WEEKDAY

Who do you say he is?

People of faith have been debating the precise nature of Jesus—fully human? fully divine? both?—since the earliest days of the church. It's understandable—after all, Jesus could not be contained by our existing categories. He broke the mold, with stunning insights, powerful works, and unlimited compassion. After centuries of debate, the church at the Council of Nicaea settled the question as best we mere mortals could manage, deciding that Jesus can only be understood as fully human and fully divine. How fortunate are we that he is both relatable and unsurpassable. Spend some time with him today; he is always available!

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 18:23-28; John 16:23b-28 (296). "I came from the Father and have come into the world. Now I am leaving the world and going back to the Father."
