READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

Acts of the Apostles 14:21-27
Revelation 21:1-5a
John 13:31-33a, 34-35

Behind the Scenes of This Week's Readings

Today's Gospel – John 10:27-30

Chapter 10 in John's Gospel primarily focuses on the image of Jesus as the Good Shepherd. John's use of the metaphors of sheep and shepherding alludes back to the prophet Ezekiel and his description of the religious and public authorities as self-serving shepherds who were more interested in themselves than their sheep, the people in their care. The prophet promises that God will send a leader (David) to better serve and save his people. (Ezekiel 34). In his Gospel John states that Jesus is now the fulfillment of this promise of a savior. This chapter expands the "I am" statements of Christ to four: "I am the Bread of Life." "I am the Light of the World." "I am the Good Shepherd." And "I am the Gatekeeper for the Sheep." – Dorothy Gearon

Dear All – Christ's peace

Extra special thanks to all who made last weekend so remarkable – the 80+ folks who pitched in for spring cleanup, the dozens of young people who made the thirty-hour famine and provided many moments of community service (also the families and helpers who helped the famine folk), the dozen adults who went to Philly to help at Saint Francis Inn, the hundreds of folks who have helped us help the Sisters who are helping Ukraine's refugees. Amazing people.

This Week in Prayer

11:30 Outdoor Mass – The 11:30 Mass returns to the tent on Memorial Day Sunday, May 29. The arrangements will be as last year – seating under the tent, outside the tent, and in cars.

Spiritual Exercises Tune-up – Have you made the Exercises? Maybe save the date for the morning of Saturday, May 14.

This Week in Service

Pregnancy Aid – Join the parishioners who help at the Pregnancy Aid center every other Wednesday. There is all sorts of work to be done. Email Jeanine if you can help. JCavanagh@sjmillstone.com

May Crib Collection – The goal is to make life easier for mothers in tough circumstances who choose to have their babies. You can help by helping to fill the crib in the gathering space. The most needed items are clothes for kids (newborns to five years – including gently used items), bottles, diapers, baby wipes, toiletries, baby formula, layettes and similar baby items.

The Baby Bottles – Our Knights and our Respect Life Ministry are raising funds for The Center for Great Expectations (CGE) in Somerset. The CGE provides critically important help to families in difficult settings, including families expecting new babies. Please return your baby bottle by May 22.

This Week in Community

CCD – End of THIS year – Thanks to all the volunteers made this year such a success. Enjoy summer!

Graduation Celebration – Are you or a family member (who is a registered parishioner or a regular) graduating from High School, Trade School, College, or Grad School this year? Please join our prayers and praises for graduates at the 11:30 Mass on Sunday, June 5. We want to recognize you, pray for you, and give you a few reminders of your parish's gladness over you. If you are graduating and can attend that Mass, please complete the form online. Registration closes May 27.

With continued thanks and blessings for you during the Easter Season – and an extra "Alleluia"

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER; GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY

Be a goodness trafficker

Many of us are proud to be good at what we do whether it is a trade, craft, profession, or pastoral role. Yet few of us claim to be experts at our special task. Sister of Charity Blessed Miriam Teresa Demjanovich of New Jersey is called a "genius of the soul" for her instructions on the mystical life collected after her death in 1927 under the title Greater Perfection. In a key closing lesson, she writes: "Union with God, then, is the spiritual height God calls everyone to achieve—anyone . . . who specializes in the traffic of eternal good, who says 'yes' constantly to God." On this Mother's Day, pray that every mother may become, and also nurture, "soul geniuses" and traffic in eternal good.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 13:14, 43-52; Revelation 7:9, 14b-17; John 10:27-30 (51). "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me."

EASTER WEEKDAY

Flying in formation

Did you think that Catholic cardinals came to be so called because their red robes were reminiscent of the birds with the same name? Nope—it's actually the other way around. Cardinals—that is, the senior members of the clergy—wear red because it symbolizes their willingness to sacrifice for their faith. The birds came to be called cardinals because they reminded people of the red-clad men who make up the church's College of Cardinals. The word cardinal comes from the Latin word for "hinge"—upon which a gate or door opens. Pray for these leaders and their flocks to open their eyes, ears, and hearts as we find our way together into the future church.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 11:1-18; John 10:1-10 (279). "The gatekeeper opens it for him, and the sheep hear his voice."

Tuesday, May 10, 2022

MEMORIAL OF JOHN OF ÁVILA, PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Thank you, God

German Catholic mystic Meister Eckhart gets credit for these eloquent words: "If the only prayer you ever say in your entire life is 'Thank you,' it will be enough." More than a century later, another Catholic mystic would offer a slightly different view. Spanish priest Saint John of Ávila, recognized as a doctor of the church, wrote: "A single 'Blessed be God' in adversity is worth more than a thousand acts of thanksgiving in prosperity." But in the end, you can't go wrong following King David's direction in Psalm 34 to "Bless the Lord at all times"—even when it seems impossible.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 11:19-26; John 10:22-30 (280). "He rejoiced and encouraged them all to remain faithful to the Lord in firmness of heart."

Wednesday, May 11, 2022

EASTER WEEKDAY

Cultivate a missionary's heart

Today we celebrate the feast of Servant of God Matteo Ricci, a Jesuit missionary to China during the 16th and 17th centuries. He was known for his multitudinous academic ventures for the benefit of his constituents and for his openness to (and adoption of) the local culture. He is famous for creating a Chinese map of the known world, for his consultations with Chinese royalty on matters of astronomy and science, and for his assistance in translating important works from Latin to Chinese—and vice versa. Let your own gifts overflow in a life of witness.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 12:24—13:5a; John 12:44-50 (281). "So may your way be known upon earth; among all nations, your salvation."

Thursday, May 12, 2022

MEMORIAL OF NEREUS AND ACHILLEUS, MARTYRS; PANCRAS, MARTYR

Pray for the courage of conviction

Today we honor three martyrs, Saints Nereus, Achilleus, and Pancras. Attitudes toward martyrs can run hot and cold. "Ugh, they just want to be a martyr," we say about the self-aggrandizing who put their sacrifices on display. In one of his sermons, Saint Augustine chided false martyrs, those who flaunted punishments they received for promoting schismatic beliefs. But when we see the real deal, a person whose heart is so big that "sacrifice" feels less like pain and more like love, we applaud their martyrdom. Open our hearts, O God, so that we can sacrifice like that.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 13:13-25; John 13:16-20 (282). "Whoever receives me receives the one who sent me."

Friday, May 13, 2022

MEMORIAL OF OUR LADY OF FATIMA

Let a new era of peace begin

In 1917 during a time of great turmoil in Europe, three Portuguese children reported seeing an apparition of Mary in which, it was later revealed, the Blessed Mother called for people to imitate her faithfulness to Christ as a way to achieve peace. According to Carmelite Sister Lúcia dos Santos, one of the children of Fatima, Mary also promised that the consecration of Russia by the world's bishops would lead to an era of peace. Amid the devastation of Russia's 2022 invasion of Ukraine, the Catholic bishops of Ukraine requested Pope Francis to consecrate Ukraine and Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, which he did on March 25, asking all the world's bishops to join him from their own dioceses. May we continue to follow Mary's example of discipleship as a way of achieving peace at home and abroad.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 13:26-33; John 14:1-6 (283/563A). "Blessed are those who hear the word of God and observe it."

Saturday, May 14, 2022

FEAST OF MATTHIAS, APOSTLE

The making of an apostle

There are alternate ways of becoming an apostle. Number one is being called directly by Jesus, as were the 12 apostles. Then there's today's saint, Matthias, who was chosen by drawing lots. Saint Paul was a self-proclaimed apostle. Junia and her partner Andronicus are called apostles in Romans 16:7. The church also designates apostles: Patrick was the "Apostle of Ireland," Boniface the "Apostle to the Germans," and Mary Magdalene has the honor of being the "Apostle to the Apostles." The word apostle means sent, so in a sense when we are sent forth at the end of Mass, we're all apostles. How does that change your understanding of who you are?

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 1:15-17, 20-26; John 15:9-17 (564). "It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you."
