READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK

Deuteronomy 30:10-14
Colossians 1:15-20
Luke 10:25-37

Behind the Scenes of This Week's Readings

Today's Gospel - Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

Luke is the only evangelist to include this narrative about the commissioning of the seventy-two disciples in his Gospel. Because Luke was writing primarily for a Gentile audience, he paid special attention to those who would follow the original Apostles and go into new parts of the world to evangelize. Seventy-two disciples are most likely mentioned because a prevalent interpretation of Genesis 10 held that there were seventy-two nations in the world at that time. This chapter reads very much like a guideline for future disciples, the missionaries going into these lands. They were advised to travel in pairs so that their preaching about Jesus would be verified as honest testimony by the companion. There is also a warning that the disciples may not always be welcome but treated with hostility.

Dear All – Christ's peace!

God bless our Tennessee-bound High School Students – They take off this week after July 4. Thanks for coming to their assistance with the tools you have donated and with your contributions to the poor box. Catholic Heart Summer Work Camp continues to be a terrifically formative experience for our parish's young people. This year the bus will hold 40 from our parish. God bless them.

Ukraine's Refugees – Mother General Beata continues to thank you profoundly for the ways in which you are enabling her Sisters to care for Ukraine's refugees. Her email this week was particularly upbeat.

“ . . . Thank you so much for your great love for our people. When I (told) our Sisters in Winnica, Ukraine (about your support) they were so happy that they can help people and teach the children. . . I really admire (Saint Joseph Parish) and what you are doing for the other people. In our chapel we have perpetual adoration, so over there I am telling Jesus about (Saint Joseph Parish). May the Sacred Heart of Jesus bless you all . . . Thank you so much . . . M Beata.”

Holy Chow! – The food truck ministry met this week. They will soon be specifying ways in which you can join the adventure. We hope to launch Holy Chow! the day after Labor Day. Stay tuned. Also, keep an eye out for more information about tag lines and the logo..

24th ANNIVERSARY OF THE DEDICATION OF OUR CHURCH

From its very beginnings, the Christian Community has celebrated the anniversary of a church's dedication. During this past week we celebrated the dedication of our new church building in 1998. After two years of COVID restrictions, we the Living Church, especially honor this consecrated building as the sacred place where we once again gather as a community, listen to God's Word, celebrate the Sacraments, and share in the Eucharist. We are reminded of God's goodness to us and how we have been called together as a community and rededicate ourselves to God's service.

Since Church anniversaries include not only a look back with thanksgiving, but a look forward with commitment, we pray the following :

Our Anniversary Prayer

The skies and the highest heavens cannot contain God, much less church buildings that are made by human hands. Yet God dwells on earth and makes Himself known in sacred spaces and sacred moments.

Today we dedicate afresh this building to the service of God. We honor our sanctuary as a place of worship, songs, prayers and praise. We promise to share God's word more readily and to sing, pray and share in such ways as to energize and deepen our faith.

We rededicate ourselves this day to serving the children in our midst.

We pray for the softening of hardened hearts and for reconciliation where there is conflict.

We pray today to mark a new beginning of healing, peace and co-operation.

We covenant anew today, to share the ministry of Jesus with the larger community around us, that all who cross our paths may know of His unconditional love and healing grace.

Blessed Lord, draw our hearts to you, guide our minds, fill our imaginations, control our wills and make us wholly yours. Use us as you will, to the glory of your holy name and the welfare of your people; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

We are blessed

This land is a favored patch of Earth. "From the mountains, to the prairies, to the oceans white with foam," as Irving Berlin's anthem goes, may God bless this place we call the United States of America. Berlin's song is both patriotic and prayerful, which is why it's sometimes sung in church. He originally wrote it for a play, then set it aside for 20 years, resurrecting it as the Third Reich came to power and the world needed an inspirational song. (Woody Guthrie didn't like it and wrote "This Land Is Your Land" in response.) However you choose to sing it, croon a song of gratitude for your country.

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 66:10-14c; Galatians 6:14-18; Luke 10:1-12, 17-20 (102). "Lo, I will spread prosperity over Jerusalem like a river, and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing torrent."

Red, white, blue, and Catholic

Catholics were a small minority in America's colonial period—at the end of the Revolutionary War, there were only about 25,000 Catholics in the United States out of a total population of 3 million. Catholics faced persecution, first in the original colonies, and then in the new country that was ironically founded in part on freedom of religion. Today there are 70 million Catholics in the United States, or 22 percent of the population, and for many years Catholics have made up about a third of the U.S. Congress—more than any other denomination. With the values of our faith, Catholics have made countless contributions to the betterment of our country through myriad kinds of service—what's yours?

OPTIONAL PROPER MASS FOR INDEPENDENCE DAY (USA)
(887-891)

TODAY'S READINGS: Hosea 2:16, 17b-18, 21-22; Matthew 9:18-26 (383). "Courage, daughter! Your faith has saved you."

Sweet is the rose

Saint Elizabeth of Portugal belongs to a saintly tradition called a "miracle of the roses." Elizabeth was caught smuggling provisions from the family larder to give to the poor, food hidden under her cloak to elude disapproving relatives. When confronted by a suspicious husband and ordered to reveal what she was hiding, roses tumbled from her wrap instead of bread. Many saints, including Juan Diego, Dorothy, and Rita of Cascia also had miraculous encounters with roses. Pope John Paul II once pointed out that the thorns of these roses remind us of worldly trials—but their enduring fragrance represents the love of Christ.

MEMORIAL OF ELIZABETH OF PORTUGAL, QUEEN, THIRD ORDER FRANCISCAN

TODAY'S READINGS: Hosea 8:4-7, 11-13; Matthew 9:32-38 (384). "The crowds were amazed and said, 'Nothing like this has ever been seen.'"

Tap into the riches of diversity

On this day in 2017, the most recent gathering of the National Black Catholic Congress (NBCC) began in Orlando, Florida. The NBCC was founded by African-American Catholics as a successor to Daniel Rudd's Colored Catholic Congress movement, which had been dormant since 1894. Since 1987, the NBCC has gathered black Catholics from around the United States every five years for fellowship and to discuss a pastoral plan to be published by the Congress after each meeting. The NBCC is governed by the nation's black bishops, a group active since the first ones were appointed in the late 20th century. May we all draw deeply from the wellspring of our cultural heritage to enrich the church.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hosea 10:1-3, 7-8, 12; Matthew 10:1-7 (385). "You descendants of Abraham, his servants, sons of Jacob, his chosen ones! He, the LORD, is our God."

Adventures in pursuit of the reign of God

Today's gospel begins with Jesus' command that his apostles declare the "kingdom of heaven is at hand." Pope Francis has noted that seeking the reign of God involves boldness and adventure. Seeking the Kingdom, he once told a Sunday Angelus audience, is the "opposite of a dull life: it is a treasure that renews life every day and leads it to extend towards wider horizons."

Those seeking the reign of God, he continued, "have a creative and inquisitive heart" leading them to "new paths" for loving God, neighbor, and themselves. Has your quest for the Kingdom taken you on unexpected journeys?

TODAY'S READINGS: Hosea 11:1-4, 8c-9; Matthew 10:7-15 (386). "Jesus said to his Apostles: 'As you go, make this proclamation: 'The Kingdom of heaven is at hand.'"

Friday, Jul 08, 2022

Branch out

Chances are you're spending some time outside this summer, enjoying the glories of nature. One ancient tree worth noting is the cedar, which has deep spiritual roots in Hebrew and Christian tradition. The height and breadth of the mighty cedar of Lebanon are associated with the greatness of God. It is long-lived, evergreen, fruit-bearing, and a place of refuge—all characteristics of Yahweh and Mary, in her role as Mother of God and protectress of the church. The next time you feel vulnerable or distant from God, call to mind the grand cedar and know that divine comfort awaits if only you seek its reach.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hosea 14:2-10; Matthew 10:16-23 (387). "He shall strike root like the Lebanon cedar, and put forth his shoots."

Creed and culture are not the same

European missionaries were pouring into China during the 19th century, bringing with them not only the Christian religion, but also the European culture that they believed was part and parcel of the practice of the faith. Chinese reception of Christianity was mixed. Many Chinese saw it as a cultural invasion since some missionaries condemned customary Chinese practices like veneration of ancestors as demon worship. Augustine Zhao Rong represents 87 Chinese Catholics and 33 Western missionaries who were killed during a period of anti-foreigner resentment that followed. Be mindful that your evangelizing always be accompanied by respect and sensitivity.

MEMORIAL OF AUGUSTINE ZHAO RONG, PRIEST, MARTYR, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 6:1-8; Matthew 10:24-33 (388). "It is enough for the disciple that he become like his teacher."
