This Moment in Prayer, Service and Community

Dear All: Christ's Peace!

The day of maximum daylight is here. These are just the right weeks for us to round out our transitions into Stage III. More light. Less darkness. More health. Less sickness. More freedom. Fewer restrictions. God is good.

SPECIAL SECTION: STAGE III OF OUR PAN-DEMIC EXPERIENCE: ADJUSTMENTS FOR EACH MASS

As we make our way through our June transitions, logistics for each Mass continue to change.

8:00 am Sunday Mass – Thank you to all who helped us launch the 8:00 as an “enhanced precautions Mass.” All went well. People stayed far apart (blue squares) and wore masks. It is up & running.

4:45 Saturday Mass and 9:30 Sunday Mass – We had a bit of confusion at Communion at the 9:30 but other than that, full steam ahead. Sections 1, 2, 5, 6, and 7 are standard precautions (every other pew, green triangles) and masks are suggested, for now, but not required. Sections 3 and 4 are enhanced precautions sections (every third pew/blue squares) and masks are in vogue. Depending on demand, we may gradually eliminate these sections, especially since we now have the 8:00 for people with special requirements.

June 20, 2021

Remember, decide if you are a blue-squares or green-triangle-type and find your section and seat!

11:30 Mass – All is going well. Thanks to all the folks who want “in-car” or “close parking.” Most of you had your signs and made it work well. Also, we will gradually put more chairs in half of the tent.

Adding More Liturgical Ministers – Our transition into Stage III allows us to include more liturgical ministers at every Mass. Thank heaven! The transition will occur gradually and steadily. The demand for lectors, servers, sacristans, Eucharistic Ministers, ushers, musicians, and singers is on the rise. Stay tuned.

This Moment in Prayer

Confirmations – The last celebrations have taken place. What a fantastic bunch of 78 young people. God bless every one of you and your families and teachers.

Baccalaureate Mass – We again celebrated our new tradition of Baccalaureate Mass this weekend. Seniors and their families gathered for a prayerful hail and farewell. God bless our graduates!

Karen Komar's Funeral – Karen died early last Saturday morning. Many of you know Karen by face more than by name. She is one of our parishioners with special needs and was a semi-regular at the 4:45 and the 9:30. She and her helper from the group home generally sat in the back of section 5. Despite my occasional urgings, she chose not to bring up the gifts. I'm thinking that most of Karen's group-home housemates will not be able to join us for Karen's funeral on Monday at 10. All are welcome.

This Moment in Service

The Bishop's Annual Appeal – We have reached our goal! Thank you to everyone who pushed us to the 102.7%-of-goal mark! Everything from here on out gets split between us and the diocese.

Hillsborough Food Bank – The pandemic launched the project, and your kindness sustains it. The folks at the food bank continue to lavish grateful praise on all the parishioners who continue to give so generously. The church van continues to serve as the drop-off point for the Tuesday noon deliveries.

Youth Group Summer Work Trips – Stay tuned for more information about this summer's adventures.

Social Ministries Funding – Many of you gave extremely generously to our fund to help parishioners who were feeling the economic hardship of the virus. The demand for the funds has been less than expected but could very well surge this summer. We will keep you posted about the use of your contributions.

This Moment in Community

Trivia Night – GREAT fun. FYI -- I got very lucky in the two categories for which Bob rented me out.

SAGES – DRUMS ALIVE strikes again this Thursday at 10. What a gas to watch from my office. This week, if schedule allows, I am joining you. All video equipment is banned. More info about their activities on the next page or check out the SAGES web page at SAGES Senior Ministry — St. Joseph Church (sjmillstone.com).

Museum Person? – Email me if you have ever organized a museum exhibition. Why? We have painted and cleaned up the Memorial Hallway. It might be great to create a permanent exhibit of our history and temporary exhibits of interesting topics. Professional input would be terrific.

With all best blessings as summer officially arrives!

Father Hank

Sent June 18 from the Office of the Bishop

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

With great joy, I will ordain four men to the priesthood and one to the transitional diaconate tomorrow, June 19, at 11 a.m. at the National Blue Army Shrine of Our Lady of Fatima in Asbury. All are invited to attend in person or to watch via the livestream on our website: www.diometuchen.org/ordinations.

Our local Church of Metuchen is indeed blessed! Thanks to your prayers and the good work of our Office of Vocations, we have the most seminarians we have had in over 25 years. Our diocese is fortunate to have wonderful seminarians, who are truly striving to form their hearts after that of Jesus'. We pray that God will continue to be generous and bless our diocese with many more vocations so that we will continue to have good holy priests, serving as shepherds and providing for the future of our local Church.

Of course, through the increase of fruitful vocations in our diocese we see the work of God's hands, but we have to do our part too, encouraging young men who would be good priests to open their hearts and to carefully listen for God's calling to the holy priesthood. Gratefully, we will have an opportunity for young men discerning their vocation to do just that - to find moments of prayer and reflection, and to listen for God's call within them - at our upcoming Quo Vadis retreat, which will be held from June 22-24 at St. Bernard of Clairvaux Church in Bridgewater. More information and registration for Quo Vadis can be found on our website: www.diometuchen.org/quovadis.

I ask you to think about the young men in your own life and encourage those who you think would be good priests to register for the retreat or to reach out to our Office of Vocations: vocations@diometuchen.org or (732) 562-2457.

Please continue to pray for all of our priests, seminarians, and those discerning a vocation to the holy priesthood. As we prepare for their ordination tomorrow, I also ask that you please pray for those men who will be ordained to the priesthood - Rev. Mr. Jun Joseph Alquiros, Rev. Mr. Ariel Bautista, Jr., Rev. Mr. Timothy Eck II, and Rev. Mr. Gregory Zannetti - and also Ronal Romario Vega Pastrana, who will be ordained to the transitional diaconate.

As I thank God for the gift of the priesthood, and especially as we prepare to celebrate the ordination tomorrow, I also thank Him for our priests and seminarians here in the Diocese of Metuchen and for you too. Please know of my love and prayers for you, and certainly my gratitude too for your kind encouragement and continued prayers for fruitful vocations here in our diocese.

With renewed best wishes, I remain

Yours in Christ,

Most Reverend James F. Checchio, JCD, MBA
Bishop of Metuchen

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Heal the human family

Fathers are an unpredictable lot. Some are lovingly remembered as protective and dependable captains who sailed their families to calmer waters through every domestic storm. Others may be lamented as the source of many a squall themselves. We pray this day for both kinds of fathers: those who stayed and those who abandoned ship, the faithful and the faithless, the tender and the tyrant. The church teaches that our world can't be whole until our families are healed. This Father's Day, we pray especially for those who volunteer as benevolent father figures for children in need of one.

TODAY'S READINGS: Job 38:1, 8-11; 2 Corinthians 5:14-17; Mark 4:35-41 (95). "[Jesus] woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, 'Quiet! Be still!'"

MEMORIAL OF ALOYSIUS GONZAGA, RELIGIOUS

Sometimes you have to swim upstream

Discerning one's vocation can be tricky enough, but once you've figured out God's call, you might encounter resistance from others in answering it. Saint Aloysius Gonzaga can relate. As an aristocrat in Renaissance Italy, he was expected to join decadent courtly life and have an accomplished military career. But even in his early teens, Aloysius was dismayed by the violence and licentiousness of his time. Deeply devout, he bucked family and societal expectations and sought a different path. He renounced his inheritance and became a Jesuit. When we encounter pressure to ignore God, may Aloysius help us all stay true.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 12:1-9; Matthew 7:1-5 (371). "The measure with which you measure will be measured out to you."

Tuesday, Jun 22, 2021

MEMORIAL OF JOHN FISHER, BISHOP AND THOMAS MORE, MARTYRS

Truth trumps tyranny

Thomas More shares this feast day with John Fisher—both beheaded for daring to cross England's King Henry VIII in his power grab. Significantly, Henry moved up Fisher's execution day so it wouldn't fall on the feast of another sainted John—John the Baptist, who likewise was beheaded by a king for opposing royal tyranny. It's always the right time to speak truth to power, even when the cost is high.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 13:2, 5-18; Matthew 7:6, 12-14 (372). "Enter through the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the road broad that leads to destruction."

Wednesday, Jun 23, 2021

Let's make the world a better place

Today the United Nations celebrates Public Service Day to honor the public servants who selflessly work to promote the common good. Each of us, however, is called to make the world a better place through service. As Pope Francis says in Fratelli Tutti: Service means caring "for the vulnerable members of our families, our society, our people . . . Service always looks to their faces, touches their flesh, senses their closeness . . . and tries to help them." Whether as emergency responders, sanitation workers, public advocates, teachers, community volunteers, or whatever your vocation or profession may be, take the opportunity to recognize the humanity of the vulnerable and offer your help.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 15:1-12, 17-18; Matthew 7:15-20 (373).

"So by their fruits you will know them."

SOLEMNITY OF THE NATIVITY OF SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST

Catch fire

Although American Catholics in general don't tend to make a fuss over the Nativity of John the Baptist, today's solemnity is one of the church's earliest, and it used to be widely celebrated in Europe with bonfires and outdoor festivities. Some regions still hold celebrations for John, who prepared humanity for the coming of Christ. The bonfires recognize the fire within this zealous, outspoken saint. Do you harbor a fire for Christ? If your passion has ebbed, pray to Saint John the Baptist to intercede that you might reignite your fire for the kingdom of God.

TODAY'S READINGS: Day: Isaiah 49:1-6; Acts 13:22-26; Luke 1:57-66, 80 (587). "He asked for a tablet and wrote, 'John is his name.'"

Friday, Jun 25, 2021

Confirm your spiritual identity

Most seventh-graders are thrilled by two things about Confirmation: the possibility of having a tongue of fire hover over their heads and choosing a new name. It's not that anything is necessarily wrong with their given names, but it seems awesome to choose one's very own name. Many spiritual traditions and rites employ the custom of taking a new name, signifying a new moment in our life with God. Though a sacrament and public witness in the church, Confirmation is also a personal confirmation of our own selves as unique and beloved of God. What can you do today to confirm your relationship with God?

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 17:1, 9-10, 15-22; Matthew 8:1-4 (375). "Do not call her Sarai; her name shall be Sarah. I will bless her."

Saturday, Jun 26, 2021

We are worthy of healing

In these divisive times, it is heartening to have examples of the healing power of a word. The gospels tell the story of a centurion, a powerful military leader of the Roman army that occupied Jewish lands, who had such great faith in Jesus that he only needed Jesus to speak a healing word. No ordinary centurion, this fellow had been a great friend of the Jewish people of Capernaum, even building their synagogue. Where are such examples today? Speak a word of healing across all that seems to divide: across the aisle, the religions, the races and ethnicities, the neighborhoods, languages, genders, and sexualities that distinguish us but do not have to divide us. Only say the word and healing shall begin.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 18:1-15; Matthew 8:5-17 (376). "Only say the word and my servant will be healed."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
