GET COMPLIANT

We need as many people as possible – whether you have immediate plans to teach CCD, help with the Youth Group, take communion to the home-bound, or assist with the basketball program. We need a bullpen! If you can help, contact Linda at lmackiw@sjmillstone.com or at 908-874-3141 x227

In-Person Religious Education Returns in September!

Teaching CCD is truly a great way to answer Jesus' call to "make disciples of all nations." Sometimes evangelizing means travelling around the world. More often it requires simpler choices, like teaching local kids why Jesus is such a big and beautiful deal. So, take the non-committal leap. Come to the

INFORMATION SESSION FOR POTENTIAL TEACHERS

Thursday, July 29, 6:00 PM

Under the Tent

Or Parish Hall depending on weather.

It will take about 45 minutes.

Contact Jim Jungels at 908-874-3141 x224 or at jjungels@stjosephsparish.com to RSVP.

Classes will run from September 19, 2021, through April 2022. You have three choices of class times: Sunday mornings, Tuesday evenings, or Thursday evenings. There are plenty of grade levels to choose from. We need 60 certified, compliant adults to offer all the needed classes. Some teach. Others are simply the second adult in the room, or the co-teacher. We also need a bullpen of certified/compliant adults who can sub as the second adult.

This Moment in Prayer, Service and Community

Dear All: Christ's Peace!
Christ's Peace!

Welcome back to our young parishioners who returned this morning from Catholic Heart Work Camp. God has given them experiences of prayer, service, and community-building that will last for years. Thanks to their families for their support and thanks to Marie Dessanti, Josh Huang, and Bob Ferretti for making the trip happen – and going on it. Advanced blessings to our college students who leave for Appalachia on Sunday. God bless all of you.

This Moment in Prayer

Praying to the Blessed Mother: “Place Me with Your Son” – The pandemic has renewed our connection to Marian prayer during Mass. First the Memorare and now the Salve Regina. Like most Marian prayers, the Salve Regina asks Mary to provide the gift Saint Ignatius frequently requested of her, that she help us obtain the grace of closeness to Christ. Notice the prayer’s end: “show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.” She is a great friend, especially in those moments when we feel a little disconnected from Jesus. Every day is a good day to renew our request, “Place Me with Your Son.” “Hail Holy Queen” (aka “Salve Regina”): The prayer cards just landed – and we will start to distribute them next week so that even more people can pray along.

“The Firefighter’s Life” – Our parish grieves the death of Billy Shaffer. Many knew Billy from the ShopRite where he was one of the managers. Many also knew Billy as one of Hillsborough’s dedicated and selfless firefighters. In the days after Billy’s death at a nearby fire, Ken Wetzel, himself a firefighter for many decades, supplied the poem, “The Fireman’s Life.” The poem concludes with a request for prayers for firefighters – and we can stretch that to a request for prayers for all public safety officers. To all of the parish’s safety officers, thank you. Count on extra prayers in these days after Billy’s death.

*A fireman's life is one big surprise,
Usually he laughs, sometimes he cries.
Answering a call, is tops on his list,
Regretting each one he's ever missed.*

*He tries and tries, but can't make us see,
The happiest men, still work for free.
Jumping from bed, fighting the cold,
Knowing what to do, without being told.
He rushes to the station, jumps on a truck.
Depending on skill, never on luck.
Putting his life on the line, for an unknown friend,
Hoping and praying, it won't be the end.
"The Bravest Men in the World," the title is fitting,
They all do their best, never come close to quitting.
Next time you see them, all their lights blinking,
Take just a minute, to think what they're thinking
.It's a hard job, so show them you care,
And help them out, with a little prayer.*

Daniel S. Driscoll -

This Moment in Service

AT CHURCH Youth Summer Service Week — Attention all high school and college-age youth - sign up for the summer service week (August 10-12) that will be held here at St. Joes. Fill out the form on line and let us know you are interested!

<https://forms.gle/5Ng7bQcBdEM4aLK19>

CCD Fall Registration – We are currently finalizing our fall schedule and looking for more volunteers to teach CCD. Registration information will be emailed out in early August once our class schedule is completed.

This Moment in Community

Shepherds Needed. Or is it “Beadles Needed?” – You might end up being known as a “shepherd.” Then again, maybe “beadle” is the better word (i.e., “a ceremonial officer of a church, college, or similar institution”). You will be hearing more about the effort to identify one person in each section at each Mass who will help us welcome new parishioners to that section. And maybe a few more duties. Stay Tuned.

Section Seven Sound – Thanks to all who have let me know about the sound issues in Section 7, and a little bit of Section 6. It seems the new speaker is doing the job. Let me know.

Parish Safety Council – We will soon be looking to renew the ranks of the Parish Safety Council (PSC). If you have a background in public safety, first aid, or cybersecurity, and are willing to help, let me know.

Fewer editions of “This Week” – Between Bastille Day and Labor Day, “This Week” might not appear every week. And when it does, it might be more abbreviated. Stay tuned to the announcements after Mass to learn the latest.

With hopes for your weekend – and your summer – that it will enable you to experience some of the fun that last summer kept out of reach.

Healing Prayer

Who Are We?

Healing Ministers are faith filled parishioners who offer one on one prayer for any needs you may have. They are prayerful people who listen to your request and prayerfully intercede on your behalf. All prayer requests are completely confidential. Bring us your requests so we can be with you in your need.

When Does It Take Place?

Until we are back to normal, healing prayer is available every other weekend, after the 9:30 Sunday Mass. You may choose a virtual or phone option. Check the bulletin for dates.

The next dates are Sundays, July 25
August 8 & 22

How Do I Sign Up?

For a virtual meeting, click on <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/7692788835> and follow the directions. For healing prayer via phone call 1-929-205-6099 and then key in 769-278-8835#.

ARTIFACTS ROAD SHOW

Yes, it is once again time to gather up those religious artifacts that need a good home. Don't know what to do with some of your deceased relatives' statues, devotionals, rosaries, etc.? Bring them to church and we will bring them to the place near Lancaster, Pennsylvania that ships things to missionary lands where the goods are in short supply. Starting this weekend, there is a drop-off table in the church's northeast corner, by the statue of the Holy Family. We will let you know when you have only three weeks left to drop things off. We will probably make the delivery right after Labor Day.

SAGES ACTIVITIES

Picnic Luncheons

Our last picnic Monday, July 26 is FULL.

This picnic will be our way of joining the universal church's celebration of the gift of those among us who are grandparents, as well as all elders among us. Picnics will resume after Labor Day.

At 1:00PM we will honor all our seniors with ice cream from Mr. Softee. If you have noy registered for the picnic, you can still share some ice cream with us and be part of the parish voice that says "Thank you God Bless you."

HEALTHY BONES will resume July 22. No RSVP required. Moving INDOORS at 10am in the Parish Hall. The group has expressed an interest in making sure our participants are vaccinated therefore, we are having a 1-time vaccination card check. No sign-up for this class, just show up.

For more info contact AnnaMaria at 908-874-2141 e3xt 240 or arealbuto@stjosephsparish.com

Time Off – We will use August to plan for the fall. Our fall picnics will include more entertainment. We will also be adding a painting event, a craft class, and a seminar on Medicare and the coverage options for 2022.

Diocesan Silver & Gold Anniversary Prayer Service

October 17, 2021.

Couples who celebrated their 25th or 50th anniversary in 2020 are also invited to attend this year's prayer service. Information/registration for the Silver and Gold Anniversary Prayer may be found at <https://www.diometuchen.org/silver-and-gold-anniversary-celebration>.

Pontifical Mission Society MISSION APPEAL August 14-15

Rev. Father,

I am, Fr. Thomas Naduviledathu, pastor at St. James Roman Catholic Church in Woodbridge, NJ. I am originally from a small village in the state of Kerala, India. The diocese of Metuchen has given the permission to do a mission appeal in your Parish, for the parish community in my village which is my native parish. I would like to share with you some information about the small village parish, so that you can include it in your bulletin and refer it on Sunday Homily on the day of Mission Appeal.

The name of the parish is St. Thomas Roman Catholic Church, Grace valley E. Mattukkatta in the Diocese of Kanjirapally. This Parish is a newly erected parish with 86 families. Our parish has 265 members. Most of them are small scale farmers. We have a small church building which can have close to 300 people, and rectory for the priest. However, we are struggling because we do not have palace for religious education. At present the classes are conducted in the church and in the rectory. We are in dare need of place to teach faith to our youth. The 86 families came together to build the church and the rectory. The new expense to build the catechism center is beyond their ability.

Building cost about 100,000. 00 US dollars, we have collected $10,00 each family contributing $120 each. with the meager income of our people, we will not be able to raise the rest of the fund. We ask for your generous support for this poor catholic community Kerala, India.

Thank you

God Bless you and your Parish family
Fr. Thomas Naduviledathu

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Celebrate mom-and-pop operations

However few dollars there are, parents make them stretch until payday. However uncertain the way ahead, they shoulder the decision-making for their brood. However dark the night and scary the storm, parents hug their little ones through it. Today our nation celebrates Parents' Day, honoring the grownups who make children's lives safer, happier, and healthier. While they may not multiply loaves and fishes quite like Jesus, parents do perform minor miracles of sufficiency every day across this country. They take imperfect human love and weave a blanket of protection and possibility for their tribe. Support your local parents!

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 4:42-44; Ephesians 4:1-6; John 6:1-15 (110). "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted."

Monday, Jul 26, 2021

MEMORIAL OF JOACHIM AND ANNE, PARENTS OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Family ties

Jesus' ancestry through Joseph is extensively traced in two of the gospels, but there's nothing there about his maternal line. The names of his grandparents—Mary's parents—aren't mentioned in scripture, but tradition has dubbed them Joachim and Anne. Whatever their names were, they had to have been remarkable people to have raised the mother of God. The courage and faith they passed on to Mary is a precious gift all parents can pass to their children. Treasure your own intergenerational bonds.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 32:15-24, 30-34; Matthew 13:31-35 (401). "The birds of the sky come and dwell in its branches."

Tuesday, Jul 27, 2021

Parables for the people

Jesus is famous for his use of parables—short metaphorical stories featuring people, places, and things utterly familiar to ordinary listeners—to get his often-countercultural point across. Typically, his parables are about the kingdom of God, which stands in stark contrast to the current world of his audience. For example, Matthew 13—which contains more parables than any other chapter in the Bible—contradicts conventional wisdom by pointing out how small things in this life—seeds and weeds, for example—are actually very big things. The parables of Jesus still teach us. Choose one to meditate on, rediscovering something wise to enlighten your day.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 33:7-11; 34:5b-9, 28; Matthew 13:36-43 (402). "Whoever has ears ought to hear."

Wednesday, Jul 28, 2021

Stay the course

Father Stanley Rother is one step away from canonization and being named publicly as a saint of the Catholic Church. Born in Oklahoma in 1935, ordained a priest in 1963, missioned to Guatemala in 1968, Rother immersed himself among the Tz'ujil Mayan communities. When civil war broke out and his name appeared on a death list, after briefly departing he decided to return, saying, the "shepherd cannot run." On July 28, 1981, three men entered the rectory where he lived and killed him. Now recognized as a martyr for the faith, Rother was beatified by the Vatican in 2016. As we await the canonization of this first American martyr, pray that you, too, might be a sign of Christ's love to the people close to you, even when it comes at a cost.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 34:29-35; Matthew 13:44-46 (403).

"When he finds a pearl of great price, he . . . sells all that he has and buys it."

Thursday, Jul 29, 2021

MEMORIAL OF MARTHA

Lesson learned

Any memorial honoring Saint Martha includes a well-deserved nod to those who quietly serve. But Martha's role in salvation history goes well beyond her hospitality to Jesus and lies in the example of her maturing faith. When Jesus admonished her about her anxiety, Martha listened. She grew in wisdom and understanding, so much so that when her brother Lazarus dies, she runs to meet Jesus and declares: "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you." Martha provides an inspiration to all of us to persevere in knowing God, loving Christ, and serving others.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 40:16-21, 34-38 (404); John 11:19-27 or Luke 10:38-42 (607). "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing."

Open the door to your own ministry

Do you ever think about your daily activities as a ministry? No activity is outside the realm of a possible ministry. Take Blessed Solanus Casey, for example. One of Solanus' jobs was as a porter, that is, a door keeper. Open/shut case, right? Not at all! Solanus understood his simple job as being a true ministry, service of God through service of others. He did not merely answer the door; he opened his heart to everyone who entered. In doing so, Solanus was able to reflect God's love and healing to others in a way that truly made a difference. How do you open your heart to others during your daily routine?

TODAY'S READINGS: Leviticus 23:1, 4-11, 15-16, 27, 34b-37; Matthew 13:54-58 (405). "Is he not the carpenter's son?"

MEMORIAL OF IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA, PRIEST

Book your biblical excursion

Never underestimate the power of a book to change lives or history. Ignatius of Loyola was a young Spanish soldier from a prominent military family. While recovering from a serious war injury, he came upon Vita Christi, a spiritual biography of the life of Christ by 14th-century German Catholic monk Ludolph of Saxony. In the book he found the meditative technique of immersing oneself in a biblical scene from the life of Jesus. The book changed Ignatius' life, and the technique became foundational to the development of Ignatian spirituality and the famed Spiritual Exercises. Try the technique: Open a gospel, read a story, and place yourself at the scene. Really be there. See what happens.

TODAY'S READINGS: Leviticus 25:1, 8-17; Matthew 14:1-12 (406).

"This fiftieth year you shall make sacred by proclaiming liberty in the land for all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
